COLLEGES AND SCHOOLS.

Louisburg Female College,
FRANKLIN CO., N. C.

THE FALL SESSION OF 1868 will begin on the 13th day of August.

The success of the institution, under its present administration, has far surpassed the expectations of its most sanguine friends.

CHARGES PER SESSION OF 20 WEEKS:

Board (exclusive of washing and lights) and Tuition in the regular English course and Ancient Languages, $100. Extra Studies moderate. $50 in advance,—remainder at the end of the session.

ADVANTAGES.

An able, energetic, and successful Faculty; an extensive and wisely arranged course of study; a judicious and thorough system of instruction; a select Chemical and Philosophical apparatus; a good Library; fine Musical Instruments; a beautiful, pleasant, and healthful location; a large, commodious building, with rooms well ventilated and well warmed in winter; excellent water, good fare; kind attention to the wants of the pupils; mild and efficient government, and ample Religious privileges.

For Circulars containing full particulars, apply to T. M. JONES,
June 15-tf President.

Wake Forest College, N. C.

THE FALL TERM OF THIS INSTITUTION will open on the first day of August, 1868, with the prospect of increased patronage and success. The complete assurance given at the recent Commencement, of the adaptedness of the University system to the wants of the times, and of its feasibility, encourages its friends to believe that the College has entered upon a career of popularity and usefulness hitherto unknown in its history. The financial embarrassments to which all southern Colleges have been subjected are not felt to the same extent at Wake Forest, as at some others, in consequence of the considerable amount of original endowment saved, and of the favorable exception with which the Agent of the College met in securing additional funds. An expenditure of more than $2,000 has been recently made in improving the condition of the building and grounds.

Determined to bring its advantages within reach of the largest number possible, the Trustees, seconded by the community, have reduced the price of Board and Tuition to the lowest practicable rates.

The officers of instruction are gentlemen of tried ability in their several departments, and the success attending their efforts in the past is the best guarantee the public can have for the future.

The location of the College, in point of healthfulness and accessibility, (being situated on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, a few miles from the Capital of the State,) is not surpassed by that of any other in the land; while the moral and social influences connected with and surrounding it, and the peculiar discipline enforced, present inducements to patronage of no ordinary kind.

A system of PUBLIC LECTURES on literary and scientific subjects has been introduced, with a view to increase the interest of the young men in the several departments of study, and to furnish additional incentives to investigation and research.

Extensive and well selected LIBRARIES belonging to the Societies, and complete APPARATUS, PHILOSOPHICAL and CHEMICAL, are not to be omitted in the enumeration of the advantages possessed.

Another encouraging feature is that there are, at present, thirteen young men engaged in studies preparatory to the work of the Ministry; and it may not be amiss to state that any Minister, who may apply for admission, will receive tuition in all the departments free of charge, and those of this class, who are without means, are encouraged to apply to the Board of Education for further assistance.

EXPENSES IN CURRENCY:

Tuition for Preparatory School (per Session)	$30.00
" " Collegiate Course, "	35.00
Board per week in private families (table fare)	2.50 to 3.00
Board, per week, with lodging,	3.00 to 3.75
Room rent (to those lodging in College Building), per session	5.00
Servants' hire "	3.00
Washing, per month,	1.50

No student is permitted to register his name until College dues are paid.

W. T. BROOKS,
June 21-d&wtAug5 Sec. Board of Trustees.

WASHINGTON COLLEGE, LEXINGTON, Va.

THE NEXT SESSION opens 3rd Thursday in Sept., 1868, and closes 4th Thursday in June, 1869. The Faculty consists of with Professors of Latin, Greek, Mathematics, Modern Languages, Moral Philosophy, and English Language and Literature, Applied Mathematics, Natural Philosophy, Chemistry and Law and Equity. These are distributed into: 1. Faculty of Arts; 2. Faculty of Science; 3. Faculty of Literature and Philosophy; 4. Faculty of Law. In each of these is conferred a distinct Bachelor's Degree, and the Degree of Master of Arts is open alike to students in each course. In the Department of Science are conferred, also, Professional Diplomas of Civil Engineer and Mining Engineer. By the aid of a full corps of assistant Professors, provision is made for thorough drilling in the Departments of English, Ancient and Modern Languages and Mathematics.

EXPENSES.—All necessary expenses need not exceed $325.

For full particulars apply to E. C. GORDON,
July 30-3w Clerk of Faculty.

University of Virginia.

THE FORTY-FIFTH SESSION of this institution will begin on the 1st day of Oct. 1868, and end on the Thursday before the 4th of July, 1869.

The organization of the institution is very complete, embracing extensive and thorough courses of instruction in Literature and Science and in the professions of Law, Medicine and Engineering.

Estimated expenses—exclusive of books, clothing and pocket-money—of the Academic student $300; of the Law Student $350, and of the Medical Student $395.

For particulars send for Catalogue to William Wertenbaker, Sec. or R. MAUPIN,

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE OF THE COMP. OF THE CURRENCY,
Washington, June 18th, 1868.

WHEREAS, by satisfactory evidence presented to the undersigned, it has been made to appear that THE STATE NATIONAL BANK OF RALEIGH, in the city of Raleigh, in the county of Wake and State of North Carolina, has been duly organized under and according to the requirements of the Act of Congress entitled "An Act to provide a National Currency, secured by a pledge of United States bonds, and to provide for the circulation and redemption thereof," approved June 3rd, 1864, and has complied with all the provisions of said Act, required to be complied with before commencing the business of Banking, under said act:

Now, THEREFORE I, Hiland R. Hulburd, Comptroller of the Currency, do hereby certify that the "State National Bank of Raleigh," in the city of Raleigh, in the county of Wake, and State of North Carolina, is authorized to commence the business of Banking under the Act aforesaid. In testimony whereof, witness my hand and seal of office, this eighteenth day of June, 1868.

A CARD.

SEVERAL months ago, I purchased the entire stock of goods owned by BRANSON, FARRAR & CO., and continued the business, changing the name afterwards to Branson & Jones,—advertising myself as Proprietor and Mr. Branson as Agent for the N. C. Business Directory.—But as some persons seem, erroneously, to consider it a partnership, or to blend the interest of the former firm with my own, I shall henceforth conduct the business under my own name alone, unless some partner should be taken hereafter. Mr. Branson will continue to be General Agent for the N. C. Directory, which will necessarily engage most of his time and attention.

I shall be pleased to furnish our friends and the public with BOOKS, STATIONERY, SHEET MUSIC and other articles in our line, at lowest cash prices.

NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC TICKET:

FOR PRESIDENT,

HON. HORATIO SEYMOUR,
OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

GEN. FRANK P. BLAIR,
OF MISSOURI.

"TO THE CONSERVATIVE PARTY."—HON. R. M. PEARSON.

The Standard, of yesterday, contains a long letter written by Hon. R. M. Pearson and addressed to the "Conservative party," in which he advocates the election of Grant and Colfax. This is the same "important letter," an extract from which appeared in the Standard some time ago, and upon which we have commented at length. Our space will not allow a review of the entire letter, at present.

There are two or three points, however, which we commend to the thoughtful.—First, the Conservatives of North Carolina will be very curious to know how it is that Judge Pearson should address them, through the columns of the Standard. They do not acknowledge any affiliation with the Standard, its former or present editors, or with its supporters. Judge Pearson does; hence, he and the Conservatives of North Carolina do not travel the same road.

Secondly, with what propriety Judge Pearson can call himself a Conservative, the Conservatives of North Carolina will be also curious to know. His acceptance of the nomination of the Radical party came very near preventing his nomination by the Conservatives, and, but for private assurances, it could not have been done.—Facts, which transpired during the election, led many a Conservative to scratch his name from the Conservative ticket. Now, that he has been elected by Radical votes; now that he endorses Radical principles and the Radical platform; and now that he is identified with the Radical party and avows himself a supporter of Grant and Colfax, it would take not merely special pleading, but thunder and lightning, to convince any one that Chief Justice Pearson is either a Conservative at all, or that he belongs to the Conservative party. The Judge has chosen his bed—let him lie on it. He has, of choice, selected his associations and his party affiliations—let him enjoy them. His letter will fail to convince any independent man in the State, that to support Grant and Colfax is to oppose war, and to support Seymour and Blair is to vote against peace! We will show that to support Grant and Colfax means war, and to support Seymour and Blair means peace.

THE WAR PARTY.

The Union party of the country closed the war in the spring of 1865, when Johnson surrendered to Sherman; but the Radical party took up the war refrain forthwith, and have been marching and countermarching, to the tune of war, ever since. The entire South has been kept under the crushing heel of war ever since by the Radical party. It has suspended the writ of habeas corpus, abolished the trial by jury, by substituting military commissions in the place of civil Courts for the trial of civil offences, kept the people down by bayonets, and forced open the ballot box to semi-barbarians and shut it up to the intelligent and virtuous.

This same party desires to open the war afresh in North Carolina by forcing upon the General Assembly a bill creating a standing army, in violation of the Constitution. Does not that mean war? Such men, who advocate this war measure, need not talk of peace. Peace is not in their hearts. War is what the carpet-baggers and their allies want.

JOHN POOL, of Pasquotank, joined hands with Gen. Abbott and the carpet-baggers and Gov. Holden, to secure his own election to the United States Senate and to defeat Gen. Alfred Dockery. The trio have joined hands, we hear, to defeat Col. O. H. Dockery for Congress in the next election, and to carry the State for Grant and Colfax. How do they expect to do it? Why by the passage of the Special Militia bill.—We understand that Pool says the bill must be passed by the Senate, without crossing an i or dotting a t. We learn that he and Gen. Abbott and Gov. Holden not only labor hard privately, and in caucus, but in the lobbies, to carry it. They will probably succeed in their efforts. If so, upon their heads will fall the responsibility for the riot, bloodshed and ruin that will follow.

LOUISIANA.—Gov. Warmouth, the carpet-bag Radical Governor of Louisiana, is generally denounced for his false statements to the President. A Conservative, by resolution, calls upon him for the names, places and facts connected with the murders.—They will not be forthcoming.

FLORIDA.—The Radical robbers, who compose the Legislature of Florida, adjourned to the 3rd. of November, but passed a bill, over the Governor's veto, paying themselves one year's pay, for their services from June to December. If that is not carpet-bagism to perfection, we don't know what is.

MILITARY COMMISSIONS.

The recommendation of Gen. Grant to the Secretary of War to remit the remainder of the sentences of, and to release from imprisonment, all persons, indiscriminately, now in confinement, under the sentence of the Military Commissions organized under the Reconstruction Acts, was recently brought before the Cabinet at Washington. No action was taken upon it.

The Intelligencer says, "as the Courts in the States, where this contemplated recommendation would apply, are in full force, and the prisoners can obtain release under a writ of habeas corpus, Gen. Grant's recommendation, in this instance, really amounts to nothing."

The President and his Cabinet, and the Secretary of War, and Gen. Grant, have all been remiss in this matter. Many a man has unjustly suffered under the decisions of Military Courts, which were perfectly incompetent to investigate or decide properly the law and the facts in the case. Civil offences have, therefore, in many cases, been expiated under the harsh and severe penalties of military law. Many have died under the sentences pronounced against very trivial offences, in some cases.

There may be objections to turning out promiscuously men sentenced for every species of crime, but we believe the great wrong done to justice and humanity by these Military Courts would sooner be corrected by an indiscriminate reversal of all their decisions, than by continuing under an unjust sentence one man for an hour.

The conduct of President Johnson, in the case of Mr. Tolar, and his fellow convicts at Fort Macon, is perfectly inexplicable. Scarcely any man doubts the injustice of that sentence—every effort has been made to bring the facts before him; and yet to no purpose. What advantage is it to Capt. Tolar, or to any other unjust sufferer, if the Courts are open to them, when the Judges higgle and hesitate, and refuse to grant a writ of habeas corpus? If Capt. Tolar has any friends, let the Judges be tried again. Judge Brooks ought to have granted the writ, long ago. It has been understood, all the time, that the military would respect a writ from a United States Court, but, for some cause, nothing has been done. At one time, there were more than two hundred convicts at Fort Macon for civil and military offences. It would do them and the country good to release all of them, rather than keep one sufferer unjustly pining away in that prison.

Besides, many of the prisoners have few friends and no means to employ lawyers to get up the writs. The Intelligencer ought to remember this, and ought to press upon the Cabinet the adoption of Gen. Grant's recommendation.

It is but an act of tardy justice that he should make that recommendation. The party of which he is the leader, and he and his subordinates, are responsible for these outrages upon humanity and civil liberty.

We are looking for a deliverance of the whole country from the reign of military despotism, Radicalism and ruin, by the election of Seymour and Blair. Let the prison doors be opened, and let the nation be free once more!

THE NORTH CAROLINA RAILROAD.

The administration of this Road, under Wm. A. Smith, of Johnston, if we understand his role of procedure, is to be conducted henceforth, not in the interest of the Stockholders, or of the people of the State, but in the interests of the Radical party. His refusal to allow a train of passengers from Wilmington to come to Raleigh on the cars of the Wilmington and Weldon Rail Road, thus forcing them to go to Weldon and to Raleigh, by the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, is the first step in his Radical programme. Secondly, at a time like this, when every one is complaining of the scarcity of money, when the stockholders of the Road are anxious to increase its business, he raises the fare on the Road to 6 cents per mile,—thus forcing every way passenger, who can do so, to take his own conveyance, and through passengers will be forced upon the Piedmont and the Wilmington Road.

The impression is gaining ground that Mr. Smith has been put upon the Road to run it down, so as to make the State and private Stockholders willing to sell the Road to Northern capitalists. The policy adopted by him will certainly effect the prostration of the Road, but we hope the Legislature and Stockholders will adopt a wiser policy,—only to sell the Road when it is in an improving and prosperous condition.

Want of a spirit of accommodation, high prices, and turbulent, noisy managers, will run down any public institution, from a Railroad to a Hotel.

NOTE AND QUERY.

Who invented the name "carpet-bagger?" Our fathers in Regulation and Revolution times may not have known the name—but they evidently knew the thing. Such men as Waightstill Avery and Richard Caswell, who came to North Carolina, and animated her sons to resist oppression, by example as well as by precept—such men, their colleagues in the Senate and their brothers in the battle-field delighted to honor. But of such men as Frohawk, the surveyor, and Fanning, the man of fox, who came to North Carolina to make for themselves what they could by fair means or by foul—of such men, Rednap Howell, the rude poet of the Regulation, taught the boys and girls to sing as follows:

"Says Frohawk to Fanning, to tell the plain truth,
When I came to this country I was but a youth,
My father sent for me: I wa'nt worth a cross,
And then my first study was stealing a horse.
I quickly got credit; and then ran away,
And hav'nt paid for him to this very day.

"Says Fanning to Frohawk, 'tis folly to lie,
I rode an old mare that was blind of one eye;
Five shillings in money I had in my purse,
My coat, it was patched, but not much the worse;
But now we've got rich, and it's very well known,
That we'll do very well, if they'll let us alone."

Perhaps some one will suggest to us two names from among our modern carpet-baggers to replace those of Frohawk and Fanning.

THE CONSTITUTION of South Carolina specifically provides that Presidential electors shall be elected by the people.

THE LEGISLATURE YESTERDAY.

In the House, on yesterday, the bill professedly to provide for the payment of the interest on the public debt passed its several readings. It directs that the interest shall be paid, but does not provide the means of payment, except in that it directs the Public Treasurer to borrow the wherewithal, (if he can,) for a time not exceeding ninety days, or to pay out of any unappropriated monies. This is an imposition upon the creditors of the State, as we shall show, hereafter.

In the Senate, the motion to reconsider the vote by which Mr. Respass' substitute for the Special Militia bill was adopted, on Saturday, was reconsidered and the substitute was rejected. Immediately, another substitute, professing to be a bill to organize the militia of the State, but, in reality, a measure equally as obnoxious, tyrannical and unconstitutional as the original, was brought forward and pressed through to its third reading—which it will undoubtedly pass this morning.—This bill is the result of a Caucus, which was held on Monday night, and, it is understood, owes its birth principally to the instrumentality and influence of John Pool.—It was ordered to be printed by Caucus, at the expense of the State, in utter defiance of all usage and decency, and laid upon the desks of Senators in advance of its introduction. We have no space, this morning, to comment upon the details of this most infamous bill, nor to refer more at length to the equally infamous action of the Senate.

We dare them to pass it: and it will awaken such a righteous indignation among the people of North Carolina, as will carry the State for Seymour and Blair by a thundering majority!

THE REGISTRATION BILL.

The Bill providing for the registration of the voters of the State,—a substitute for the bungling and complicated affair drawn up by Tourgee, of the Code Commission,—passed its several readings in the House, on Monday. We have not seen the Bill, but we learn that it is comparatively unobjectionable. We shall publish it in full, when finally perfected. Before its adoption in the House, it was amended, on motion of Mr. Durham, by the insertion of the following very necessary additional section:

"Every male person born in the United States, and every male person who has been naturalized, twenty-one years old or upward, who shall have resided in this State twelve months next preceding the election, and thirty days in the County in which he offers to vote, shall be entitled to register upon application, excepting all persons who shall deny the Being of Almighty God, and all persons who shall have been convicted of treason, perjury, or any other infamous crime, since becoming citizens of the United States, or of corruption, or mal practice in office, unless such person shall have been legally restored to the rights of citizenship."

Mr. Durham's object in moving the amendment was very manifest. Under the present regime, most of the Registrars will be appointed from the illiterate, ignorant and unreliable class of our population, who would not hesitate to assume, whenever they could, without an explicit declaration to the contrary in the Registration Act, that men, who were disfranchised in the late election, are still so. The amendment was intended to guard against this contingency.

HORRORS AT THE SOUTH.—Stimulated, of course, from Washington, the carpet bag Texas Convention has put forth a supplementary report on violence which adds ninety six bran-new murders to account of stock already taken. Curiously enough, those horrors foot up in the totals five hundred and nine whites and four hundred and eighty-six negroes; and if we admit that "the bloody rebels" slew all of these four hundred and eighty six blacks, who put the five hundred and nine whites out of the way? Was it "the poor down-trodden freedmen" that did it, or are we to conclude that this whole story is as arrant a lie as desperation ever hatched?

A LADY INSULTED ON THE STREETS.—We learn that a lady of this city was grossly insulted on the streets late yesterday evening, when alone and unprotected, by a rascally Radical negro. The scoundrel was safe in this insult, there being no gentleman near at hand, and knowing that he is safe from recognition. It has come to this, and the time has already approached when our people should be more fully prepared for self protection, and in a position to deal out chastisement for insult.—Wil. Journal, 10th.

WARMOTH, THE CARPET BAG REBEL.—Warmoth, the bayonet Governor of Louisiana, was a bush lawyer in Illinois before the war, went on Fremont's staff as a Quartermaster, was relieved at the same time with the latter, was afterwards dismissed the service in disgrace by a court-martial, went to New Orleans with Butler, and, by practising much lolity and law, has been hocus pocused into the Executive chair of the State.

Twenty-four young gentlemen of white extraction and one young "nigger" competed for the Boylston prizes at Harvard.—Horrible to relate the African youth carried off the prize.—Auburn Times.

A similar incident recently occurred down South. A million of gentlemen of white extraction and a quarter of a million of negroes competed for suffrage. Horrible to relate, the negroes carried off the prize.—Louisville Journal.

THE QUESTION FOR THE NORTH.—The New York World truly says: "The real question is not so much whether the negroes and carpet baggers are to rule the South, but whether they are to rule us. Already there are twelve of these 'loil' leeches in the Senate and thirty-three in the House.—Are they to rule us? That is the question."

EX-Secretary Stanton is said to be rapidly reaching a state of actual imbecility.—He mopes and wanders around in his own immediate neighborhood—not even noticed by those who were his former tools. He is prematurely old and feeble.—E., in Balt. Gazette.

The Radicals called a Grant meeting in the Fifth ward of New York, on Monday night, at which they had six men to speak and only four men came to hear. An adjournment was unanimously agreed to.

The Chicago Post recently considered "Can a Democrat be saved?" and answered, "Hardly." We beg to inquire then, "If the Democrats can scarcely be saved, how shall the Radicals appear?"

GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA.

BY AUTHORITY OF CONGRESS.

FIRST SESSION.

SENATE.

TUESDAY, Aug. 11, 1868.

The Senate was called to order at 10 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Blythe, Senator from Henderson.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS.

By Mr. Lassiter: A bill to prevent the carrying of deadly weapons, either openly or secretly.

By Mr. Moore, of Carteret: A bill in relation to the Mayor and Commissioners of the Town of Newport.

A message was received from the House, transmitting a bill to provide for the Registration of votes in the State; also a bill in relation to Jurors; which latter, on motion of Mr. Osborne, passed its third reading, under a suspension of the rules.

BILLS THAT PASSED THIRD READING.

Bill concerning the Courts of Justices of the Peace, and the mode of procedure therein.

Bill to incorporate the North State Swamp Land Naval Store and Lumber Company.

Bill to incorporate the North Carolina Life Insurance, Annuity and Trust Company.

Bill relating to capital execution.

Bill to amend Sections 2, 6 and 8, Chap. 120, Revised Code, requiring the Commissioner of Wrecks to give a bond of $15,000.

Leave of absence was granted Mr. Love, Senator from Jackson.

SPECIAL ORDER.

The special order, being the re-consideration of the vote by which the substitute offered by Mr. Respass, of Beaufort, for the Special Militia Bill, was adopted, was taken up.

The question upon the re-consideration was put and it was adopted, by the following vote:

AYES.—Messrs. Beasley, Bellamy, Brogden, Burns, Blythe, Colgrove, Cook, Davis, Eppes, (negro,) Forkner, Hayes, Harrington, Hyman, (negro,) Jones, of Wake, Lindsay, Lassiter, Long, Martindale, Moore, of Carteret, Moore, of Yancey, Richardson, Smith, Shoffner, Sweet, Welker and Winstead—26.

NAYS.—Messrs. Barnes, Beeman, Eaves, Love, Melchor, Mason, McLaughlin, Osborne, Purdie, Robbins, White and Wilson—12.

Mr. Martindale offered a printed substitute, whose provisions were nearly similar to those of the Special Militia bill, rejected on Friday.

Mr. Love called attention to the fact that the bill had been prepared and printed in an unusual manner.

Mr. Barrow stated that it had been prepared and printed, by the order of a majority of the Legislature, in caucus.

After various remarks by members, Mr. Osborne disclaimed any factious opposition, but thought that time should be given for consultation in so important a matter, and moved that the matter be postponed for consideration until to-morrow.

A lengthy debate ensued, in which Messrs. Robbins and Love spoke at length in opposition to the substitute of Mr. Martindale.

Mr. Robbins dissected the bill thoroughly. If he looked to party success, he would urge the opposition to pass it, but, as a friend of peace and order, he protested against it.

Messrs. Barrow, Lassiter, and others, urged the adoption of the substitute.

The question arising on the adoption of Mr. Martindale's substitute, it was adopted, by the following vote:

YEAS.—Messrs. Barrow, Beasley, Bellamy, Brogden, Burns, Blythe, Colgrove, Cook, Davis, Etheridge, Eppes, (negro,) Forkner, Galloway, (negro,) Hayes, Harrington, Hyman, (negro,) Jones, of Wake, Lindsay, Lassiter, Long, Martindale, Moore, of Carteret, Moore, of Yancy, Rich, Richardson, Smith, Shoffner, Sweet, Welker, White, and Winstead—31.

NAYS.—Messrs. Barnes, Beeman, Love, Melchor, McLaughlin, Purdie, Robbins and Wilson—8.

Mr. Love moved to amend the bill as follows:

"Sec. 3. Under this act no COLORED OFFICER, either commissioned or non-commissioned, shall ever command or drill ANY WHITE man or men."

The question being put, Mr. Love called for the yeas and nays. The vote stood as follows:

YEAS.—Messrs. Barnes, Blythe, Davis, Love, Moore, of Yancey, Melchor, McLaughlin, Purdie, Rich, Richardson, Robbins, Winstead and Wilson—13.

NAYS.—Messrs. Bellamy, Brogden, Burns, Colgrove, Cook, Etheridge, Eppes, (negro,) Forkner, Galloway, (negro,) Hayes, Harrington, Hyman, (negro,) Jones, of Wake, Long, Martindale, Moore, of Carteret, Smith, Sweet, Welker and Wynne—20.

Mr. Love moved to amend the fifth section, so that, instead of authorizing the Governor to appoint and commission all officers, the Governor shall only commission all officers. The motion was lost.

Mr. Love was about to offer another amendment, when Mr. Etheridge called the previous question, which, being sustained, the bill passed its second reading, by the following vote:

YEAS.—Messrs. Bellamy, Brogden, Burns, Blythe, Colgrove, Cook, Davis, Etheridge, Eppes, (negro,) Forkner, Galloway, (negro,) Hayes, Harrington, Hyman, (negro,) Jones, of Wake, Long, Martindale, Moore, of Carteret, Moore, of Yancey, Rich, Smith, Shoffner, Sweet, Welker, Wynne, and Winstead—26.

NAYS.—Messrs. Barnes, Love, Melchor, McLaughlin, Purdie, Robbins and Wilson—7.

Its further consideration, after some debate, was postponed till to-morrow.

A communication was received from Gov. Holden, putting in nomination Col. Edward Cantwell, (who wore the first secession cockade in this city,) for Judge of the Criminal Court of New Hanover.

Galloway, (negro,) hoped that the nomination of his friend Cantwell would be confirmed; which was accordingly agreed to.

Mr. Hayes, of Robeson, presented a communication, which he said was handed him by Mr. Foster, of the House, from a Mr. Eldridge, of Bladen, charging Mr. Purdie, the Senator from that District, with having filled office during the war, and therefore was banned by the Howard amendment!!

Mr. Hayes had consulted Mr. Purdie, and it was agreed that he should move the reference of the matter to the Committee on Privileges and Elections, and he so moved.

Mr. Robbins objected, alleging that the fact that Mr. Purdie had held office during the war, of itself, did not bar him. The position was absurd. He moved that the resolution to refer be laid on the table.

The motion was lost, and Mr. Hayes' resolution was adopted.

On motion, the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

[BY UNDERGROUND RAILROAD.]

The House was called to order at the usual hour.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Long, of the House.

Messrs. Candler and Smith, of Martin, were granted leaves of absence.

On motion of that drowsy individual, commonly known as old Major Downing, the roll was called and 83 members responded to their names.

By Procter: A resolution in reference to the 14th article, section 4th, of the Constitution. Referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Laflin, (c. b.) from the Committee on Internal Improvements, reported favorably upon bills amending the Charters of certain Railroad Companies.

Graham, from the Committee on Penal Institutions, reported back the bill in relation to the abolition of capital punishment, and recommended its postponement until next session. Report adopted.

The Chair announced the bill to provide for the payment of the interest upon the public debt, the special order for this hour.

Mr. Hodnett moved to amend, by striking out, in line 8, Section —, the word "cash," and inserting the words "currency of the United States."

The amendment was lost by a vote of yeas 23, nays 38.

Estes, (c. b.) read letters from K. P. Battle, Esq., and R. W. Pulliam, Esq., President of the National Bank of this City, to the Chairman of the Finance Committee, supporting the policy of paying the interest on the public debt.

After a discussion of some length, the bill was put on its third reading.

On its passage, according to rule, the yeas and nays were called and resulted in the following ballot:

YEAS.—Messrs. Ames, Ashworth, Beddie, Blair, Banner, Carson, Candler, Cherry, (negro,) Crawford, (negro,) Cawthorn, (negro,) Dixon, Downing, Estes, Foster, Franklin, Forkner, (negro,) Gatling, Gahagan, Gunter, Graham, Hutchings, (negro,) Harris, of Franklin, Harris, of Wake, (negro,) Hoffman, Horsey, Hodgin, Hayes, (negro,) Ingram, Justice, of Henderson, Justice, of Rutherford, Kinney, Long, of Chatham, Long, of Richmond, Leary, (negro,) Laflin, Mayo, (negro,) Morrill, Morris, (negro,) Mendenhall, Moring, Peck, Pou, Price, (negro,) Proctor, Pearson, Robbins, (negro,) Ragland, Renfrow, Reynolds, (negro,) Rea, Rhodes, Stilley, Simonds, Seymour, Stevens, Sweat, (negro,) Snipes, Sykes, (negro,) Sinclair, Short, Siegrist, Vestal, Vest, Wilson, Wilkie, Whitley, and Waldrop.

NAYS.—Messrs. Allison, Armstrong, Durham, Davidson, Farrow, Ferebee, Gibson, Grier, Hodnett, High, Hendricks, Kelly, of Davie, Moore, Nicholson, Smith, of Alleghany, Thompson and Williams.

Mr. Durham said, in explanation of his vote, that he recognized the great importance of sustaining the credit of the State, and also that they were required, by a Constitutional provision, to provide for the regular payment of the interest on the public debt; but as this measure provides for the payment of the interest, without providing the means, thereby keeping from the people the knowledge of the very heavy taxation that must necessarily follow for the payment of over one million of dollars annually, therefore he was compelled to vote no.

A message was received from the Senate, notifying the House of the passage of a resolution instructing the Public Treasurer to report whether any additional legislation was needed to raise the amount of loan of $100,000, and asking the concurrence of the House in the same.

Laflin, (c. b.) called up the bill amending the Charter of the Chatham Railroad Co.

He proceeded to read a long speech in advocacy of the measure.

After some little debate, the bill passed its second reading, by yeas 76, nays 10.

Laflin called up the bill to amend the Charter of the Western N. C. R. R. Co., and again spread himself, and, when he had talked himself hoarse, Candler cutely got the floor.

Candler's remarks took a wide range indeed, but the Reporter, being wearied out by Laflin's two inflictions, and taking advantage of Major Downing's example, fell asleep. A confused jumble about "dear poor people, butter, internal improvements, cheese, Point Rock, apples, Rocktown, &c," is all that he remembers.

The bill passed its second reading, by a vote of yeas 69, nays 5.

Laflin (c. b.) called up the bill to amend the charter of the Williamston and Tarboro R. R. Co. The bill was taken up, read and passed its 3d. reading by a vote of yeas 67, nays 3.

Laflin (c. b.) called up the bill to amend the charter of the Western R. R. Co. The bill was read and passed its 2nd. reading.

On motion of Laflin, the rules were suspended and the bill passed its final reading.

By Harris, of Wake, (negro): A bill to incorporate N. C. Iron and Steel Rail Company. Passed its several readings.

Seymour introduced, from the Judiciary Committee, a bill entitled the "concluding portion of the Code of Civil Procedure."—On motion of Seymour the rules were suspended and the bill passed its several readings.

On motion of Seymour, the bill providing for the government of counties was taken up. Seymour moved to amend by striking out that part that empowers the county Commissioners to have a map of the county. The amendment was agreed to, and the bill then passed its third reading.

Seymour gave notice that, on to-morrow, he would move a reconsideration of the vote, by which the Senate Resolution to adjourn on the 17th inst. was concurred in.

A message was received from the Senate, notifying the House of the concurrence of that body in House Bill No. 110, in reference to Jurors.

On motion, the House then adjourned.

For the Sentinel.

KINSTON, N. C., Aug. 5, 1866.

Messrs. Editors:—Allow me to suggest, through the columns of your paper, to the Convention, soon to assemble at Newbern, the name of that gallant soldier and high-toned gentleman, Col. E. C. Yellowley, of Pitt, as a Presidential Elector for this District. Col. Y. was an old line Whig, as long as that party had an organization. When the war came on, he cast his lot with his people and made for himself an honorable record in the tented field. Since the close of the war, he has heartily and thoroughly identified himself with the Democratic party in its efforts to restore a Constitutional Union.

In the section of country where he resides, no man possesses more entirely the confidence of the people of all parties. This suggestion is made without the knowledge of Col. Y., or his immediate friends, but is the spontaneous offering of many old line Democrats of Lenoir Co.

AN OLD DEMOCRAT.

When Gen. Grant reached Denver, Colorado, all the soldiers of company B, Third Infantry, saluted him with a Seymour and Blair flag. The General left, unable to remain in that town or even to alight from the coach.

The State candidates of the Democracy in Illinois have had a conference at Joliet, and they concur in the belief that the State will be carried by a decided majority for Seymour and Blair.

During the war the Radicals insisted that the President was the Government. Now they are running a man with no ideas for President. This puts their estimation of the Government at a high rate.

GRANT says "Let us have peace." What does he mean but that the "Empire is peace?"

SEYMOUR AND BLAIR CLUB IN LOUISBURG—PRESENTATION OF A FLAG BY THE LADIES.

FRANKLIN COUNTY, Aug. 10.

Editors of Sentinel:—There was a great turn-out of the people of this county, at Louisburg, on Saturday. A county Seymour and Blair Club was organized, and measures were adopted looking to a thorough canvass of the county before the election, and, if possible, to ascertain the Democratic strength of the County.

Dr. E. A. Crudup was elected President of the Club, with a Vice-President for each Captain's District, whose names I did not get, but I presume you will receive them in the official proceedings.

After the organization of the Club, Capt. J. J. Davis—Franklin's favorite son—in a neat address, full of patriotic ardor, presented to the Club a beautiful national flag, the gift of the fair and patriotic daughters of the town of Louisburg—and what daughters are not patriotic?—with the inscription: "THE NATION'S CHOICE: SEYMOUR AND BLAIR."

Capt. Davis was responded to by the President, who, in the course of his remarks, said that he had seen one Radical man, but he yet had to see a Radical woman. Did not believe there were any, for they always excelled the men in patriotism, and all good works. If there was a Radical man in the immense assembly, he wished to ask him a question: Had he a wife, sister, daughter or mother, and every man has one of these in his life? If so, had he consulted her?—If he had not, it should be done without delay, after which he was certain that he would be a Radical no longer.

Gov. Bragg, Judge Fowle and Mr. Eaton were expected from abroad, but the latter gentleman only responded to the invitation to be present, and delivered an earnest and patriotic speech, in the interest of Horatio Seymour, for President, and Francis Preston Blair, for Vice President.

He was followed by Captain Davis, in much the best speech that I have ever heard that gentleman make. The white people down here take what Davis says, as if they believed it to be the Gospel.

After Captain D. had finished, loud calls were made for Col. W. F. Green, but, at the suggestion of some one, the meeting took a recess for twenty minutes.

After which, Col. Green was again called out, and made a speech of near two hours in length. His remarks were principally addressed to the colored persons present. He urged them to discontinue their connection with the worthless set of wreckers and cormorants, who were only using them to advance their own selfish ends, and from whom they could expect nothing, as they had no means of bettering the colored man's condition, and would not if they could. The speech seemed to have good effect on those for whom it was intended. He closed by saying: "That he confidently hoped that on the morning of the fourth of March next, when the sun was at high noon, a happy and a glorious nation would witness the inauguration of Horatio Seymour, President, and Francis P. Blair, Vice President of the United States of America."

After Col. G., Jno. R. Thomas, Esq., was called for and ascended the stand amid much applause.

He said that he was full, and any man that had heard what he had, and was not full, was unworthy the name of man. He was no preacher; the others had made the argument, and he was only going to exhort a little. The whites needed no exhortation to good works, and so he was going to attend to his colored friends, who had always had confidence in and respect for him.

I left town while he was exhorting them.

I never saw more enthusiasm manifested. Everybody seems to be fully alive here as to the issues involved.

The Rads. have a meeting at Louisburg, to-day, to say something about Coltax and Grant—the tan and black candidates. But no use—this county is going 'tother way.

A Club has been organized at Franklinton, with between fifty and one hundred members. The books are kept open and accessions are made daily.

A large delegation from this county will be at the great awakening in Raleigh.

Won't them Rads. in the State House open their eyes?

[CONTRIBUTED TO THE SENTINEL.]

TO JOHN POOL, "WHO WRITES HIMSELF" UNITED STATES SENATOR FROM THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA:

FRIEND JOHN:—Permit an old Whig to speak to thee a little, in order to "stir up thy pure mind by way of remembrance." I fear, friend, thee has a short memory and even a thick hide, and, therefore, I wish to refresh the former, knowing very well that I can make no impression on the latter.

Friend, if my memory is not as short as thy own, I think thee was one of the Electors for North Carolina in 1861, and if my eyes did not greatly deceive me, I saw thee cast thy vote in the Capitol at Raleigh for Jefferson Davis, as President of the Confederate States, and from conversations had with thee then, I took thee to be a good Confederate. I suppose, however, from thy declarations made since the close of the war, that in saying and acting thus, thee was only trying to "weaken the rebellion." Mr. Scoredouble, in the Play, said he healed his obstinate mule on the same principle,—when he wanted him to "go home," he always turned his head in the opposite direction, upon mounting him, and, by the aid of a good cudgel, he went "home" in a double-quick. I give thee credit for sagacity, at least, friend; for it really does seem, from my recollection of thy political course, that the surest way for thee to make any party "go up," is for thee to "come down" on it. But judging from thy conduct, friend, I fear thy course, during the war, was intended, not so much to "weaken the rebellion," as to strengthen thyself. Hushai, at the suggestion of David, remained with Absalom, in order to overcome the counsel of Achitophel and weaken the rebellion; and his conduct afterwards showed that he had acted from sincere attachment to the cause of his lawful sovereign, and patriotic devotion to his country. I think, friend John, thee has shown that if "Absalom" had succeeded, thee would have set up high claims for services rendered to his cause, and even aspired to be one of his counsellors, or perhaps a Senator. If thee had been made a General by the rebels, as I hear thee wished to be, I suppose thee would have led thy men, as Falstaff did his, where they would have been "peppered well," while thyself acting on the old knight's maxim, that "the better part of valor is discretion," thee would have lain down and feigned thyself dead, and thus lived to "weaken the rebellion" again by having thy men "peppered well" another day. Be that as it may, friend John, one thing is very certain,—thee has weakened thyself sadly in the opinion of all good men of the old Whig party; because they have heard the word of Holy Writ, which says, "A double-minded man is unstable in all his ways," and we old Union men don't know how long thee is going to stick on the Union side; nor do we know, indeed, but all the efforts thee appears to be making for the "reconstruction" of the Union, may be intended really to weaken it;—it looks very much like it, at all events, to plain, old fashioned people.—Old Ben Jonson speaks of a certain class of people,

"That, with most quick agility, could turn,
And re-return; could make knots and undo them;
Give forked counsel; take provoking gold
On either hand, and put it up."

Such creatures lived in his day, and we think "some of the same sort are left" in our time.

Friend John, thee has indeed "sown beside all waters." Thee was a Whig and tried to be Governor, but the people said nay; thee was a Know Nothing and tried to be Senator, and the people said nay; thee joined the rebellion and tried to be Senator, and the people said nay; thee tried to be a rebel General, and the government said nay;—the "communication" of the people to thee was "only nay, nay continually," until at last thy patience became exhausted waiting for something to "turn up," so thee concluded to "turn over," and took up thy carpet-bag and went after "strange Gods" into Africa, lusting after the "garlic and onions" of Egypt; but, friend, thy stay in that region will be short and by no means comfortable;—and what with frogs and locusts (scalawags) singing and croaking continually, "making night hideous;" grasshoppers (carpet-baggers), "which devour every green thing," and lice, "which cover all the inhabitants of the land," I think thee will be made to cry out, and if thee shall have grace given thee to escape, thee will come out of Egypt a sadder if not a wiser man; but if, like Ephraim, thee will be joined to thy idols and chain thyself to Africa for life, why then, friend John, God help —— Africa!

Me miserable! which way shall I fly?—

I will write thee again soon; in the meantime farewell, John.

From thy old Union Whig friend,
THOMAS THE QUAKER.

N. B.—Friend John, if thee is really in earnest in thy present acts and sayings, please let me know privately; because in 1861 thee got us into trouble on account of not having notified thy friends in some private manner that thee was looking one way and rowing another. Some of thy friends lost sons, and arms and legs by it, which was too bad, but better luck next time, we hope. Keep thy eye skinned, John, and advise us of thy movements.

THOMAS.

THE PEOPLE MOVING!

THE CRY IS STILL THEY COME!!

[We are still compelled to condense the proceedings of public meetings, which pour in upon us in an increasing stream. Our friends will appreciate the necessity which forces us to this course.]

ROCKINGHAM.

Large meeting at Madison,—and the third great meeting in the county within a week,—on the 1st. Dr. T. W. Dandridge presided and H. J. McGehee was Secretary. Col. Jno. H. Dillard and Gen. A. M. Scales delivered able speeches, which were received with enthusiastic favor. A Seymour and Blair Club was formed, with the following permanent officers: President, Dr. T. W. Dandridge; Vice Presidents, Thos. Price, Peter Scales and J. H. Cardwell; Recording Secretary, H. J. McGehee; Corresponding Secretaries, W. P. Reynolds and J. M. Andrews; Treasurer, M. Spragins; Directors, J. L. Cardwell, N. B. Scales, W. W. Oliver, B. R. Webster and J. A. Vernon. Seventy-six names were at once enrolled as members of the Club. The Sentinel Constitution and By-Laws were adopted for its government.

DAVIDSON.

Large and respectable meeting at Thomasville on the 7th., when a Club was formed, with the following officers, viz: President, Dr. R. W. Thomas; Vice Presidents, D. W. C. Johnson and D. S. Westmoreland; Recording Secretary, A. L. Grimes; Corresponding Secretary, Jno. D. Paylor; Treasurer, J. M. Shelley. Forty names were enrolled, and a Committee was appointed to devise and report some plan for the organization of the Conservative portion of the colored voters into a similar Club. Short, effective speeches were made by D. W. C. Johnson, Esq., Col. W. C. Blount and D. S. Westmoreland, Esq.

Our correspondent writes: "Seymour and Blair is the watchword,—the Platform of the New York Convention is our foundation stone, and our motto is 'Civil Liberty against Military Despotism.' We want Peace too,—not a peace, however, begotten by the sword and sustained by 'General Orders' from 'Headquarters,' but that which is found in the hearts of the people, and has for its cap stone civil liberty and constitutional law!"

WARREN.

Enthusiastic meeting in Warrenton on the 8th. Francis A. Thornton, Esq. presided and Mr. C. W. Spruill was Secretary. The meeting was ably and eloquently addressed by Walter A. Montgomery, Esq., Col. W. A. Jenkins and W. K. Barham, Esq. Appropriate resolutions were adopted, delegates appointed to the District Electoral Convention, and the following to the approaching State Convention, viz:

William Eaton, Jr., Col. Wm. A. Jenkins, Edward H. Plummer, Walter A. Montgomery, W. K. Barham, Plummer W. Green, Capt. J. M. Palmer, John E. Boyd, Nathan Mham, Samuel Bobbitt, John M. Brame, Dr. R. S. F. Peete, Richard A. Davis, G. W. Nicholson, Col. W. S. Davis, James H. Mayfield, James S. Walker, Weldon N. Edwards, Wm. W. White, Benjamin M. Collins, Len Henderson, Dr. W. J. Hawkins, Dr. Sol. G. Ward, Charles J. Jones, Dr. C. T. Simms, Alex. L. Steed, Dr. Frank Patterson, Alfred Alston, Jr., Dr. Samuel W. Eaton, Henry Williams, Isham H. Bennett, Dr. T. J. Pitchford, Gen. S. A. Williams, Dr. M. P. Perry, Thomas M. Fleming, John W. Riggan, Saml. W. Dowtin, Robert O. Montgomery, Nathaniel Nicholson, Buckner Eaton, Benj. P. Davis, Thomas B. Fleming, John M. Waddill, Dr. Geo. A. Foote, Dr. T. F. Jerman, Kemp Plummer, Cap. Jno. R. Turnbull, J. Buxton Williams, Horace Palmer, Jr. and John R. Garland.

NASH.

Spirited and large meeting at Nashville, on the 3rd. Rev. J. Johnson presided, and D. W. Williams, Esq., was Secretary. Three delegates from each district in the County were appointed to the State Convention. The people were effectively addressed by Jno. Enroughty, Esq. The usual ratification resolutions were adopted.

WAKE.

We have received the official proceedings of the meeting at Wake County Chalybeate Springs (Fuquа's) on the 7th., but a previous notice supersedes the necessity of their publication. Wm. Ballentine, Esq., presided, and W. H. Holland was Secretary. The people, as heretofore stated, were addressed by R. C. Badger, Esq., in a speech of great ability and impressiveness, briefly and sensibly by G. H. Alford, Esq., and in cogent and effective style by C. W. Coffield, Esq., of Harnett.

RICHMOND.

Meeting at Rockingham, the county-seat, on the 4th. Dr. P. W. Stansell presided and A. T. Cole, Esq., was Secretary. A General Seymour and Blair Club was formed, and 50 delegates were appointed to the State Convention. The meeting was entertained by stirring speeches from Cols. Frank Terry and W. L. Steele, Rev. F. Sandford, J. W. Cole and M. J. McSween, Esqs.

CHATHAM.

A meeting of the citizens of Baldwin's District, at Riggsbee's Store, on the 8th, Wm Snipes presided and Stanly M. Riggsbee was Secretary. The Chairman delivered an instructive and able address. A Club was organized, with the following officers: President, Dr. E. H. Ward; Vice-Presidents, H. C. Horton, A. S. Garner and J. G. Lambeth; Recording Secretary, S. M. Riggsbee; Corresponding Secretary, A. J. Lynam; Directors, T. B. Farrar, Wesley Jones, Dr. Ed. Mann, J. H. Ward and Geo. W. Cole. Delegates were appointed to the State Convention. Eighty-one citizens enrolled themselves as members of the Club—who were present, except two of the U. A.

MECKLENBURG.

Large meeting at Charlotte on the 8th.—Two hundred delegates were appointed to the State Convention, and the same gentlemen requested to act as District dele-

ORANGE.

Meeting at Chapel Hill on the 10th. R. D. Patterson, Esq., presided, and Anderson Couch and Capt. R. B. Saunders were Secretaries. Seventy-five delegates were appointed to the State Convention, and, in default of their attendance, Plato Durham, Esq., and Maj. A. M. Erwin were requested to act as Proxies. Ten delegates were appointed to the District Electoral Convention, with J. H Merrimon, Esq., and Col. W. H. Hardy as proxies. Arrangements were made for a grand Barbecue in Morganton, to come off shortly. The meeting was eloquently addressed by Col. H. C. Jones, of Charlotte, amid great applause.

A Seymour and Blair Club was subsequently organized, with the following officers: President, Col. J. J. Erwin; Vice-Presidents, W. M. Winters, J. H. Pearson, and others; Recording Secretary, C. Frank Terry; Corresponding Secretary, Maj. A. C. Avery; Treasurer, E. W. Dorsey; Directors, Hon. B. S. Gaither and others. The Club was addressed in stirring and eloquent speeches by Messrs. E. J. Erwin, C. J. McKesson, Platt D. Walker, of Wilmington, Jno. Gray Bynum, Col. H. C. Jones, and others. A large number of ladies were present and the enthusiasm knew no bounds. Hurrah for Burke!

COL AND GRANTFAX! HOORAY!—It had been announced, for some time, with quite a flourish of trumpets, that there was to be a "County Republican Ratification Meeting," at the Court-House, on yesterday. Accordingly, the bill was rung vigorously and re-rung, but only five "white men" and about twenty-five negroes, of all the "trooly loil" of the County, answered to the summons. The would-be meeting adjourned in disgust,—proposing to meet again at night, when, it is to be hoped, for pity's sake, the faithful were successful in drumming up a few recruits. Hooray for hooray!

MASS MEETING.—We are requested to announce that there will be a Mass Meeting of the friends of Seymour and Blair, at Franklinton, on Saturday, the 22nd. inst The Hons. R. B. Gilliam and James W. Osborne, and W. M. Robbins and Jas. S. Amis, Esquires, are expected to address the people. This announcement, and the awakened enthusiasm of the people, will doubtless cause large numbers to be present.

FAYETTEVILLE.—The man "who writes himself Governor" has made the following municipal appointments for Fayetteville:—Mayor—W. H. Porter; Commissioners—W. H. Tomlinson, Ro. Mitchell, S. N. Welsh, A. Overbaugh, Jim Bowman, (negro,) Jack Chestnut, (negro,) Thomas Lomax, (negro,) Poor Fayetteville!

THE NEW YORK Herald of the 8th. virtually admits that the game is up with Grant and Colfax. In an article headed "The terrible counter-revolution approaching," it intimates that "the nominees of the Chicago Convention may be overwhelmed by the weight of Radical mal-administration, since the 'rebellion' was wound up, which they have to carry on their shoulders."

SHOCKING MURDER.—W. M. Rea, of Mecklenburg County, killed his wife on the 7th. inst., in Providence neighborhood, by knocking her in the head with a gun. He has been arrested and is now in Charlotte jail.

COL. R. H. COWAN has accepted an invitation to address the citizens of Guilford, at Greensboro', on the 18th. inst.

WE REGRET to announce the death of Jno. A. Roseboro, Esq., of Iredell. Mr. R. was a useful and estimable citizen, and had filled many stations of public trust.

Grant Man—I tell you, sir, Republicanism is looking up.

Seymour Man—Well, Radicalism is so flat on its back that it can't look any other way.

The Washington papers say that "none but his immediate family" are admitted to Thad Stevens' bedside. A strict black drop treatment of his chronic ailment.

Probabilities daily strengthen the belief that Hon. John S. Phelps will be nominated for Governor of Missouri. He will be elected.

ARE YOU for war, for military rule, for an Imperial central government and for a Dictator or Emperor? Vote for Grant and Colfax.

FROM ALABAMA—THE LEGISLATURE—GOV. SMITH'S VETO OF THE ELECTORAL BILL.

MONTGOMERY, Aug. 11, P. M.

A flutter was caused in the Legislature to-day. Gov. Smith sent in the Senate, where it originated, a veto of the bill authorizing the Legislature to cast the electoral vote of the State. Governor Smith says:

"After the most mature reflection, I am forced to the conclusion that the bill is wrong in principle, and that it would be a dangerous precedent in a Republican Government.

It cannot but be regarded as remarkable, that the first republican Legislature, convened in Alabama, shall, in the face of the principle of its organization, which every republican professes to hold dear, deny not only to the colored, but to the white man, the right, by his vote, to indicate his choice for a President and Vice President of the United States, and take the matter in its own hands! What excuse can there be for it? Is it a mere party expediency? If so, then it is an abandonment of principles, or an acknowledgement that the material, out of which the republican party is composed, cannot be trusted in other words it is to say that the colored men will not do to be trusted.

If the party is as strong as it has been supposed to be, then the necessity or party expediency does not exist, but, if it did exist, would we be justifiable in resorting to it? As much as I desire the election of Grant and Colfax, I am unwilling to become a party, in behalf of that desirable result, to a scheme which practically denies the very principles for which these standard-bearers stand pledged before the country."

The message created a warm discussion and caused much bitterness.

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

EDSON FESSENDEN, President. | JAMES F. BURNS, Secretary.

IN PRESENTING THE CLAIMS OF THE PHŒNIX MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, to the people of North Carolina, the Agent invites their attention to the following statements:

1. It is a Mutual Company, the profits being divided among the insured.
2. Its insured are allowed to travel and reside in any part of the United States and Europe, at all seasons of the year.
3. Its dividends have averaged 50 per cent yearly, and are payable on the amount of premium paid by the insured.
4. Its policies are all NON-FORFEITING.
5. Its losses have been met by the annual interest received alone, and a surplus of interest left over to swell the general fund belonging to the insured.
6. It has paid over $500,000 of loses, and NEVER CONTESTED A CLAIM.
7. Its rates of assurance are as cheap as any Company doing a safe business.
8. IT WILL NOT INSURE AN UNSOUND RISK.
9. One half the premium will be received in the note of the insured—which note, in case of death, is NEVER deducted from the face of the policy.
10. IT HAS NO CONNECTION WITH FIRE INSURANCE.

Relative character of the companies operating in North Carolina, as to their Assets and Liabilities, taken from the New York Insurance Report for the year 1867, which is the last report—showing how much of Assets each Company has to meet each dollar of Liability:

PHŒNIX MUTUAL	$1 76
ÆTNA	1 91

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 12, 1868

NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC TICKET:

FOR PRESIDENT,

HON. HORATIO SEYMOUR,

OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

GEN. FRANK P. BLAIR,

OF MISSOURI.

"TO THE CONSERVATIVE PARTY"—HON. R. M. PEARSON.

The Standard, of yesterday, contains a long letter written by Hon. R. M. Pearson and addressed to the "Conservative party," to which he advocates the election of Grant and Colfax. This is the same "important letter," an extract from which appeared in the Standard some time ago, and upon which we have commented at length. Our space will not allow a review of the entire letter, at present.

There are two or three points, however, which we commend to the thoughtful.—First, the Conservatives of North Carolina will be very curious to know how it is that Judge Pearson should address them, through the columns of the Standard. They do not acknowledge any affiliation with the Standard, its former or present editors, or with its supporters. Judge Pearson does; hence, he and the Conservatives of North Carolina do not travel the same road.

Secondly, with what propriety Judge Pearson can call himself a Conservative, the Conservatives of North Carolina will be also curious to know. His acceptance of the nomination of the Radical party came very near preventing his nomination by the Conservatives, and, but for private assurances, it could not have been done.—Facts, which transpired during the election, led many a Conservative to scratch his name from the Conservative ticket. Now, that he has been elected by Radical votes; now that he endorses Radical principles and the Radical platform; and now that he is identified with the Radical party and avows himself a supporter of Grant and Colfax, it would take not merely special pleading, but thunder and lightning, to convince any one that Chief Justice Pearson is either a Conservative at all, or that he belongs to the Conservative party. The Judge has chosen his bed—let him lie on it. He has, of choice, selected his associations and his party affiliations—let him enjoy them. His letter will fail to convince any independent man in the State, that to support Grant and Colfax is to oppose war, and to support Seymour and Blair is to vote against peace! We will show that to support Grant and Colfax means war, and to support Seymour and Blair means peace.

THE WAR PARTY.

The Union party of the country closed the war in the spring of 1865, when Johnson surrendered to Sherman; but the Radical party took up the war refrain forthwith, and have been marching and countermarching, to the tune of war, ever since. The entire South has been kept under the crushing heel of war ever since by the Radical party. It has suspended the writ of habeas corpus, abolished the trial by jury, by substituting military commissions in the place of civil Courts for the trial of civil offences, kept the people down by bayonets, and forced open the ballot box to semi-barbarians and shut it up to the intelligent and virtuous.

This same party desires to open the war afresh in North Carolina by forcing upon the General Assembly a bill creating a standing army, in violation of the Constitution. Does not that mean war? Such men, who advocate this war measure, need not talk of peace. Peace is not in their hearts. War is what the carpet-baggers and their allies want.

JOHN POOL, of Pasquotank, joined hands with Gen. Abbott and the carpet-baggers and Gov. Holden, to secure his own election to the United States Senate and to defeat Gen. Alfred Dockery. The trio have joined hands, we hear, to defeat Col. O. H. Dockery for Congress in the next election, and to carry the State for Grant and Colfax. How do they expect to do it? Why by the passage of the Special Militia bill.—We understand that Pool says the bill must be passed by the Senate, without crossing an i or dotting a t. We learn that he and Gen. Abbott and Gov. Holden not only labor hard privately, and in caucus, but in the lobbies, to carry it. They will probably succeed in their efforts. If so, upon their heads will fall the responsibility for the riot, bloodshed and ruin that will follow.

LOUISIANA.—Gov. Warmoth, the carpet-bag Radical Governor of Louisiana, is generally denounced for his false statements to the President. A Conservative, by resolution, calls upon him for the names, places and facts connected with the murders.—They will not be forthcoming.

FLORIDA.—The Radical robbers, who compose the Legislature of Florida, adjourned to the 3rd. of November, but passed a bill, over the Governor's veto, paying themselves one year's pay, for their services from June to December. If that is not carpet-bagism to perfection, we don't know what is.

MILITARY COMMISSIONS.

The recommendation of Gen. Grant to the Secretary of War to remit the remainder of the sentences of, and to release from imprisonment, all persons, indiscriminately, now in confinement, under the sentence of the Military Commissions organized under the Reconstruction Acts, was recently brought before the Cabinet at Washington. No action was taken upon it.

The Intelligencer says, "as the Courts in the States, where this contemplated recommendation would apply, are in full force, and the prisoners can obtain release under a writ of habeas corpus, Gen. Grant's recommendation, in this instance, really amounts to nothing."

The President and his Cabinet, and the Secretary of War, and Gen. Grant, have all been remiss in this matter. Many a man has unjustly suffered under the decisions of Military Courts, which were perfectly incompetent to investigate or decide properly the law and the facts in the case. Civil offences have, therefore, in many cases, been expiated under the harsh and severe penalties of military law. Many have died under the sentences pronounced against very trivial offences, in some cases.

There may be objections to turning out promiscuously men sentenced for every species of crime, but we believe the great wrong done to justice and humanity by these Military Courts would sooner be corrected by an indiscriminate reversal of all their decisions, than by continuing under an unjust sentence one man for an hour.

The conduct of President Johnson, in the case of Mr. Tolar, and his fellow convicts at Fort Macon, is perfectly inexplicable. Scarcely any man doubts the injustice of that sentence—every effort has been made to bring the facts before him; and yet to no purpose. What advantage is it to Capt. Tolar, or to any other unjust sufferer, if the Courts are open to them, when the Judges higgle and hesitate, and refuse to grant a writ of habeas corpus? If Capt. Tolar has any friends, let the Judges be tried again. Judge Brooks ought to have granted the writ, long ago. It has been understood, all the time, that the military would respect a writ from a United States Court, but, for some cause, nothing has been done. At one time, there were more than two hundred convicts at Fort Macon for civil and military offences. It would do them and the country good to release all of them, rather than keep one sufferer unjustly pining away in that prison.

Besides, many of the prisoners have few friends and no means to employ lawyers to get up the writs. The Intelligencer ought to remember this, and ought to press upon the Cabinet the adoption of Gen. Grant's recommendation.

It is but an act of tardy justice that he should make that recommendation. The party of which he is the leader, and he and his subordinates, are responsible for these outrages upon humanity and civil liberty.

We are looking for a deliverance of the whole country from the reign of military despotism, Radicalism and ruin, by the election of Seymour and Blair. Let the prison doors be opened, and let the nation be free once more!

THE NORTH CAROLINA RAILROAD.

The administration of this Road, under Wm. A. Smith, of Johnston, if we understand his role of procedure, is to be conducted henceforth, not in the interest of the Stockholders, or of the people of the State, but in the interests of the Radical party. His refusal to allow a train of passengers from Wilmington to come to Raleigh on the cars of the Wilmington and Weldon Rail Road, thus forcing them to go to Weldon and to Raleigh, by the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, is the first step in his Radical programme. Secondly, at a time like this, when every one is complaining of the scarcity of money, when the stockholders of the Road are anxious to increase its business, he raises the fare on the Road to 6 cents per mile,—thus forcing every way passenger, who can do so, to take his own conveyance, and through passengers will be forced upon the Piedmont and the Wilmington Road.

The impression is gaining ground that Mr. Smith has been put upon the Road to run it down, so as to make the State and private Stockholders willing to sell the Road to Northern capitalists. The policy adopted by him will certainly effect the prostration of the Road, but we hope the Legislature and Stockholders will adopt a wiser policy,—only to sell the Road when it is in an improving and prosperous condition.

Want of a spirit of accommodation, high prices, and turbulent, noisy managers, will run down any public institution, from a Railroad to a Hotel.

NOTE AND QUERY.

Who invented the name "carpet-bagger?" Our fathers in Regulation and Revolution times may not have known the name—but they evidently knew the thing. Such men as Waightstill Avery and Richard Caswell, who came to North Carolina, and animated her sons to resist oppression, by example as well as by precept—such men, their colleagues in the Senate and their brothers in the battle-field delighted to honor. But of such men as Frohawk, the surveyor, and Fanning, the man of fees, who came to North Carolina to make for themselves what they could by fair means or by foul—of such men, Rednap Howell, the rude poet of the Regulation, taught the boys and girls to sing as follows:

"Says Frohawk to Fanning, to tell the plain truth,
When I came to this country I was but a youth,
My father sent for me: I wa'nt worth a cross,
And then my first study was stealing a horse.
I quickly got credit; and then ran away,
And hav'nt paid for him to this very day.

"Says Fanning to Frohawk, 'tis folly to lie,
I rode an old mare that was blind of one eye;
Five shillings in money I had in my purse,
My coat, it was patched, but not much the worse;
But now we've got rich, and it's very well known,
That we'll do very well, if they'll let us alone."

Perhaps some one will suggest to us two names from among our modern carpet-baggers to replace those of Frohawk and Fanning.

THE CONSTITUTION of South Carolina specifically provides that Presidential electors shall be elected by the people.

THE LEGISLATURE YESTERDAY.

In the House, on yesterday, the bill professedly to provide for the payment of the interest on the public debt passed its several readings. It directs that the interest shall be paid, but does not provide the means of payment, except in that it directs the Public Treasurer to borrow the wherewithal, (if he can,) for a time not exceeding ninety days, or to pay out of any unappropriated monies. This is an imposition upon the creditors of the State, as we shall show, hereafter.

In the Senate, the motion to reconsider the vote by which Mr. Respass' substitute for the Special Militia bill was adopted, on Saturday, was reconsidered and the substitute was rejected. Immediately, another substitute, professing to be a bill to organize the militia of the State, but, in reality, a measure equally as obnoxious, tyrannical and unconstitutional as the original, was brought forward and pressed through to its third reading—which it will undoubtedly pass this morning.—This bill is the result of a Caucus, which was held on Monday night, and, it is understood, owes its birth principally to the instrumentality and influence of John Pool.—It was ordered to be printed by Caucus, at the expense of the State, in utter defiance of all usage and decency, and laid upon the desks of Senators in advance of its introduction. We have no space, this morning, to comment upon the details of this most infamous bill, nor to refer more at length to the equally infamous action of the Senate.

We dare them to pass it; and it will awaken such a righteous indignation among the people of North Carolina, as will carry the State for Seymour and Blair by a thundering majority!

THE REGISTRATION BILL.

The Bill providing for the registration of the voters of the State,—a substitute for the bungling and complicated affair drawn up by Tourgee, of the Code Commission,—passed its several readings in the House, on Monday. We have not seen the Bill, but we learn that it is comparatively unobjectionable. We shall publish it in full, when finally perfected. Before its adoption in the House, it was amended, on motion of Mr. Durham, by the insertion of the following very necessary additional section:

"Every male person born in the United States, and every male person who has been naturalized, twenty-one years old or upward, who shall have resided in this State twelve months next preceding the election, and thirty days in the County in which he offers to vote, shall be entitled to register upon application, excepting all persons who shall deny the Being of Almighty God, and all persons who shall have been convicted of treason, perjury, or any other infamous crime, since becoming citizens of the United States, or of corruption, or mal practice in office, unless such person shall have been legally restored to the rights of citizenship."

Mr. Durham's object in moving the amendment was very manifest. Under the present regime, most of the Registrars will be appointed from the illiterate, ignorant and unreliable class of our population, who would not hesitate to assume, whenever they could, without an explicit declaration to the contrary in the Registration Act, that men, who were disfranchised in the late election, are still so. The amendment was intended to guard against this contingency.

HORRORS AT THE SOUTH.—Stimulated, of course, from Washington, the carpet bag Texas Convention has put forth a supplementary report on violence which adds ninety six bran-new murders to account of stock already taken. Curiously enough, these horrors foot up in the totals five hundred and nine whites and four hundred and eighty-six negroes; and if we admit that "the bloody rebels" slew all of these four hundred and eighty six blacks, who put the five hundred and nine whites out of the way? Was it "the poor down trodden freedmen" that did it, or are we to conclude that this whole story is as arrant a lie as desperation ever hatched?

A LADY INSULTED ON THE STREETS.—We learn that a lady of this city was grossly insulted on the streets late yesterday evening, when alone and unprotected, by a rascally Radical negro. The scoundrel was safe in this insult, there being no gentleman near at hand, and knowing that he is safe from recognition. It has come to this, and the time has already approached when our people should be more fully prepared for self protection, and in a position to deal out chastisement for insult.—Wil. Journal, 10th.

WARMOTH, THE CARPET BAG REBEL.—Warmoth, the bayonet Governor of Louisiana, was a bush lawyer in Illinois before the war, went on Fremont's staff as a Quartermaster, was relieved at the same time with the latter, was afterwards dismissed the service in disgrace by a court-martial, went to New Orleans with Butler, and, by practising much lolity and law, has been hocus pocused into the Executive chair of the State.

Twenty-four young gentlemen of white extraction and one young 'nigger' competed for the Boylston prizes at Harvard.—Horrible to relate the African youth carried off the prize.—Auburn Times.

A similar incident recently occurred down South. A million of gentlemen of white extraction and a quarter of a million of negroes competed for suffrage. Horrible to relate, the negroes carried off the prize.—Louisville Journal.

THE QUESTION FOR THE NORTH.—The New York World truly says: "The real question is not so much whether the negroes and carpet baggers are to rule the South, but whether they are to rule us. Already there are twelve of these 'loil' leeches in the Senate and thirty-three in the House.—Are they to rule us? That is the question."

Ex-Secretary Stanton is said to be rapidly reaching a state of actual imbecility.—He mopes and wanders around in his own immediate neighborhood—not even noticed by those who were his former tools. He is prematurely old and feeble.—E., in Balt. Gazette.

The Radicals called a Grant meeting in the Fifth ward of New York, on Monday night, at which they had six men to speak and only four men came to hear. An adjournment was unanimously agreed to.

The Chicago Post recently considered "Can a Democrat be saved?" and answered, "Hardly." We beg to inquire then, "If the Democrats can scarcely be saved, how shall the Radicals appear?"

GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA.

BY AUTHORITY OF CONGRESS.

FIRST SESSION.

SENATE.

TUESDAY, AUG. 11, 1868.

The Senate was called to order at 10 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Blythe, Senator from Henderson.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS.

By Mr. Lassiter: A bill to prevent the carrying of deadly weapons, either openly or secretly.

By Mr. Moore, of Carteret: A bill in relation to the Mayor and Commissioners of the Town of Newport.

A message was received from the House, transmitting a bill to provide for the Registration of votes in the State; also a bill in relation to Jurors; which latter, on motion of Mr. Osborne, passed its third reading, under a suspension of the rules.

BILLS THAT PASSED THIRD READING.

Bill concerning the Courts of Justices of the Peace, and the mode of procedure therein.

Bill to incorporate the North State Swamp Land Naval Store and Lumber Company.

Bill to incorporate the North Carolina Life Insurance, Annuity and Trust Company.

Bill relating to capital execution.

Bill to amend Sections 2, 6 and 8, Chap. 120, Revised Code, requiring the Commissioner of Wrecks to give a bond of $15,000.

Leave of absence was granted Mr. Love, Senator from Jackson.

SPECIAL ORDER.

The special order, being the re-consideration of the vote by which the substitute offered by Mr. Respass, of Beaufort, for the Special Militia Bill, was adopted, was taken up.

The question upon the re-consideration was put and it was adopted, by the following vote:

AYES.—Messrs. Beasley, Bellamy, Brogden, Burns, Blythe, Colgrove, Cook, Davis, Eppes, (negro,) Forkner, Hayes, Harrington, Hyman, (negro,) Jones, of Wake, Lindsay, Lassiter, Long, Martindale, Moore, of Carteret, Moore, of Yancey, Richardson, Smith, Shoffner, Sweet, Welker and Winstead—26.

NAYS.—Messrs. Barnes, Beeman, Eaves, Love, Melchor, Mason, McLaughlin, Osborne, Purdie, Robbins, White and Wilson—12.

Mr. Martindale offered a printed substitute, whose provisions were nearly similar to those of the Special Militia bill, rejected on Friday.

Mr. Love called attention to the fact that the bill had been prepared and printed in an unusual manner.

Mr. Barrow stated that it had been prepared and printed, by the order of a majority of the Legislature, in caucus.

After various remarks by members, Mr. Osborne disclaimed any factious opposition, but thought that time should be given for consultation in so important a matter, and moved that the matter be postponed for consideration until to-morrow.

A lengthy debate ensued, in which Messrs. Robbins and Love spoke at length in opposition to the substitute of Mr. Martindale.

Mr. Robbins dissected the bill thoroughly. If he looked to party success, he would urge the opposition to pass it, but, as a friend of peace and order, he protested against it.

Messrs. Barrow, Lassiter, and others, urged the adoption of the substitute.

The question arising on the adoption of Mr. Martindale's substitute, it was adopted, by the following vote:

YEAS.—Messrs. Barrow, Beasley, Bellamy, Brogden, Burns, Blythe, Colgrove, Cook, Davis, Etheridge, Eppes, (negro,) Forkner, Galloway, (negro,) Hayes, Harrington, Hyman, (negro,) Jones, of Wake, Lindsay, Lassiter, Long, Martindale, Moore, of Carteret, Moore, of Yancy, Rich, Richardson, Smith, Shoffner, Sweet, Welker, White, and Winstead—31.

NAYS.—Messrs. Barnes, Beeman, Love, Melchor, McLaughlin, Purdie, Robbins and Wilson—8.

Mr. Love moved to amend the bill as follows:

"Sec. 3. Under this act no COLORED OFFICER, either commissioned or non-commissioned, shall ever command or drill ANY WHITE man or men."

The question being put, Mr. Love called for the yeas and nays. The vote stood as follows:

YEAS.—Messrs. Barnes, Blythe, Davis, Love, Moore, of Yancey, Melchor, McLaughlin, Purdie, Rich, Richardson, Robbins, Winstead and Wilson—13.

NAYS.—Messrs. Bellamy, Brogden, Burns, Colgrove, Cook, Etheridge, Eppes, (negro,) Forkner, Galloway, (negro,) Hayes, Harrington, Hyman, (negro,) Jones, of Wake, Long, Martindale, Moore, of Carteret, Smith, Sweet, Welker and Wynne—20.

Mr. Love moved to amend the fifth section, so that, instead of authorizing the Governor to appoint and commission all officers, the Governor shall only commission all officers. The motion was lost.

Mr. Love was about to offer another amendment, when Mr. Etheridge called the previous question, which, being sustained, the bill passed its second reading, by the following vote:

YEAS.—Messrs. Bellamy, Brogden, Burns, Blythe, Colgrove, Cook, Davis, Etheridge, Eppes, (negro,) Forkner, Galloway, (negro,) Hayes, Harrington, Hyman, (negro,) Jones, of Wake, Long, Martindale, Moore, of Carteret, Moore, of Yancey, Rich, Smith, Shoffner, Sweet, Welker, Wynne, and Winstead—26.

NAYS.—Messrs. Barnes, Love, Melchor, McLaughlin, Purdie, Robbins, and Wilson—7.

Its further consideration, after some debate, was postponed till to-morrow.

A communication was received from Gov. Holden, putting in nomination Col. Edward Cantwell, (who wore the first secession cockade in this city,) for Judge of the Criminal Court of New Hanover.

Galloway, (negro,) hoped that the nomination of his friend Cantwell would be confirmed; which was accordingly agreed to.

Mr. Hayes, of Robeson, presented a communication, which he said was handed him by Mr. Foster, of the House, from a Mr. Eldridge, of Bladen, charging Mr. Purdie, the Senator from that District, with having filled office during the war, and therefore was banned by the Howard amendment!!

Mr. Hayes had consulted Mr. Purdie, and it was agreed that he should move the reference of the matter to the Committee on Privileges and Elections, and he so moved.

Mr. Robbins objected, alleging that the fact that Mr. Purdie had held office during the war, of itself, did not bar him. The position was absurd. He moved that the resolution to refer be laid on the table.

The motion was lost, and Mr. Hayes' resolution was adopted.

On motion, the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

[BY UNDERGROUND RAILROAD.]

The House was called to order at the usual hour.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Long, of the House.

Messrs. Candler and Smith, of Martin, were granted leaves of absence.

On motion of that drowsy individual, commonly known as old Major Downing, the roll was called and 85 members responded to their names.

By Procter: A resolution in reference to the 14th article, section 4th, of the Constitution. Referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Laflin, (c. b.) from the Committee on Internal Improvements, reported favorably upon bills amending the Charters of certain Railroad Companies.

Graham, from the Committee on Penal Institutions, reported back the bill in relation to the abolition of capital punishment, and recommended its postponement until next session. Report adopted.

The Chair announced the bill to provide for the payment of the interest upon the public debt, the special order for this hour.

Mr. Hodnett moved to amend, by striking out, in line 8, Section —, the word "cash," and inserting the words "currency of the United States."

The amendment was lost by a vote of yeas 33, nays 38.

Estes, (c. b.) read letters from K. P. Battle, Esq., and R. W. Pulliam, Esq., President of the National Bank of this City, to the Chairman of the Finance Committee, supporting the policy of paying the interest on the public debt.

After a discussion of some length, the bill was put on its third reading.

On its passage, according to rule, the yeas and nays were called and resulted in the following ballot:

YEAS.—Messrs. Ames, Ashworth, Beddie, Blair, Banner, Carson, Candler, Cherry, (negro,) Crawford, (negro,) Cawthorn, (negro,) Dixon, Downing, Estes, Foster, Franklin, Forkner, (negro,) Gatling, Gahagan, Gunter, Graham, Hutchings, (negro,) Harris, of Franklin, Harris, of Wake, (negro,) Hoffman, Horney, Hodgin, Hayes, (negro,) Ingram, Justice, of Henderson, Justice, of Rutherford, Kinney, Long, of Chatham, Long, of Richmond, Leary, (negro,) Laflin, Mayo, (negro,) Morrill, Morris, (negro,) Mendenhall, Moring, Peck, Pou, Price, (negro,) Proctor, Pearson, Robbins, (negro,) Ragland, Renfrow, Reynolds, (negro,) Rea, Rhodes, Stilley, Simonds, Seymour, Stevens, Sweat, (negro,) Snipes, Sykes, (negro,) Sinclair, Short, Siegrist, Yestal, Vest, Wilson, Wilkie, Whitley, and Waldrop.

NAYS.—Messrs. Allison, Armstrong, Durham, Davidson, Farrow, Ferebee, Gibson, Grier, Hodnett, High, Hendricks, Kelly, of Davie, Moore, Nicholson, Smith, of Alleghany, Thompson and Williams.

Mr. Durham said, in explanation of his vote, that he recognized the great importance of sustaining the credit of the State, and also that they were required, by a Constitutional provision, to provide for the regular payment of the interest on the public debt; but as this measure provides for the payment of the interest, without providing the means, thereby keeping from the people the knowledge of the very heavy taxation that must necessarily follow for the payment of over one million of dollars annually, therefore he was compelled to vote no.

A message was received from the Senate, notifying the House of the passage of a resolution instructing the Public Treasurer to report whether any additional legislation was needed to raise the authorized loan of $100,000, and asking the concurrence of the House in the same.

Laflin, (c. b.) called up the bill amending the Charter of the Chatham Railroad Co.

He proceeded to read a long speech in advocacy of the measure.

After some little debate, the bill passed its second reading, by yeas 76, nays 10.

Laflin called up the bill to amend the Charter of the Western N. C. R. R. Co., and again spread himself, and, when he had talked himself hoarse, Candler cutely got the floor.

Candler's remarks took a wide range indeed, but the Reporter, being wearied out by Laflin's two inflictions, and taking advantage of Major Downing's example, fell asleep. A confused jumble about "dear poor people, butter, internal improvements, cheese, Paint Rock, apples, Ducktown, &c," is all that he remembers.

The bill passed its second reading, by a vote of yeas 69, nays 5.

Laflin (c. b.) called up the bill to amend the charter of the Williamston and Tarboro R. R. Co. The bill was taken up, read and passed its 2d. reading by a vote of yeas 67, nays 3.

Laflin (c. b.) called up the bill to amend the charter of the Western R. R. Co. The bill was read and passed its 2nd. reading.

On motion of Laflin, the rules were suspended and the bill passed its final reading.

By Harris, of Wake, (negro): A bill to incorporate N. C. Iron and Steel Rail Company. Passed its several readings.

Seymour introduced, from the Judiciary Committee, a bill entitled the "concluding portion of the Code of Civil Procedure."—On motion of Seymour the rules were suspended and the bill passed its several readings.

On motion of Seymour, the bill providing for the government of counties was taken up. Seymour moved to amend by striking out that part that empowers the county Commissioners to have a map of the county. The amendment was agreed to, and the bill then passed its third reading.

Seymour gave notice that, on to-morrow, he would move a reconsideration of the vote, by which the Senate Resolution to adjourn on the 17th inst. was concurred in.

A message was received from the Senate, notifying the House of the concurrence of that body in House Bill No. 110, in reference to Jurors.

On motion, the House then adjourned.

For the Sentinel.

KINSTON, N. C., Aug. 5, 1868.

Messrs. Editors:—Allow me to suggest, through the columns of your paper, to the Convention, soon to assemble at Newbern, the name of that gallant soldier and high-toned gentleman, Col. E. C. Yellowley, of Pitt, as a Presidential Elector for this District. Col. Y. was an old line Whig, as long as that party had an organization. When the war came on, he cast his lot with his people and made for himself an honorable record in the contest field. Since the close of the war, he has heartily and thoroughly identified himself with the Democratic party in its efforts to restore a Constitutional Union.

In the section of country where he resides, no man possesses more entirely the confidence of the people of all parties. This suggestion is made without the knowledge of Col. Y., or his immediate friends, but is the spontaneous offering of many old line Democrats of Lenoir Co.

AN OLD DEMOCRAT.

When Gen. Grant reached Denver, Colorado, all the soldiers of company B, Third Infantry, saluted him with a Seymour and Blair flag. The General left, unable to remain in that town or even to alight from the coach.

The State candidates of the Democracy in Illinois have had a conference at Joliet, and they concur in the belief that the State will be carried by a decided majority for Seymour and Blair.

During the war the Radicals insisted that the President was the Government. Now they are running a man with no ideas for President. This puts their estimation of the Government at a high rate.

GRANT says "Let us have peace." What does he mean but that the "Empire is peace?"

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

SEYMOUR AND BLAIR CLUB IN LOUISBURG—PRESENTATION OF A FLAG BY THE LADIES.

FRANKLIN COUNTY, Aug. 10.

Editors of Sentinel:—There was a great turn-out of the people of this county, at Louisburg, on Saturday. A county Seymour and Blair Club was organized, and measures were adopted looking to a thorough canvass of the county before the election, and, if possible, to ascertain the Democratic strength of the County.

Dr. E. A. Crudup was elected President of the Club, with a Vice-President for each Captain's District, whose names I did not get, but I presume you will receive them in the official proceedings.

After the organization of the Club, Capt. J. J. Davis—Franklin's favorite son—in a neat address, full of patriotic ardor, presented to the Club a beautiful national flag, the gift of the fair and patriotic daughters of the town of Louisburg—and what daughters are not patriotic?—with the inscription: "THE NATION'S CHOICE: SEYMOUR AND BLAIR."

Capt. Davis was responded to by the President, who, in the course of his remarks, said that he had seen one Radical man, but he yet had to see a Radical woman. Did not believe there were any, for they always excelled the men in patriotism, and all good works. If there was a Radical man in the immense assembly, he wished to ask him a question: Had he a wife, sister, daughter or mother, and every man has one of these in his life? If so, had he consulted her?—If he had not, it should be done without delay, after which he was certain that he would be a Radical no longer.

Gov. Bragg, Judge Fowle and Mr. Eaton were expected from abroad, but the latter gentleman only responded to the invitation to be present, and delivered an earnest and patriotic speech, in the interest of Horatio Seymour, for President, and Francis Preston Blair, for Vice President.

He was followed by Captain Davis, in much the best speech that I have ever heard that gentleman make. The white people down here take what Davis says, as if they believed it to be the Gospel.

After Captain D. had finished, loud calls were made for Col. W. F. Green, but, at the suggestion of some one, the meeting took a recess for twenty minutes.

After which, Col. Green was again called out, and made a speech of near two hours in length. His remarks were principally addressed to the colored persons present. He urged them to discontinue their connection with the worthless set of wreckers and cormorants, who were only using them to advance their own selfish ends, and from whom they could expect nothing, as they had no means of bettering the colored man's condition, and would not if they could. The speech seemed to have good effect on those for whom it was intended. He closed by saying: "That he confidently hoped that on the morning of the fourth of March next, when the sun was at high noon, a happy and a glorious nation would witness the inauguration of Horatio Seymour, President, and Francis P. Blair, Vice President of the United States of America."

After Col. G., Jno. R. Thomas, Esq., was called for and ascended the stand amid much applause.

He said that he was full, and any man that had heard what he had, and was not full, was unworthy the name of man. He was no preacher; the others had made the argument, and he was only going to exhort a little. The whites needed no exhortation to good works, and so he was going to attend to his colored friends, who had always had confidence in and respect for him.

I left town while he was exhorting them.

I never saw more enthusiasm manifested. Everybody seems to be fully alive here as to the issues involved.

The Rads. have a meeting at Louisburg, to-day, to say something about Colfax and Grant—the tan and black candidates. But no use—this county is going 'tother way.

A Club has been organized at Franklinton, with between fifty and one hundred members. The books are kept open and accessions are made daily.

A large delegation from this county will be at the great awakening in Raleigh.

Won't them Rads. in the State House open their eyes? H.

[COMMUNICATED TO THE SENTINEL.]

TO JOHN POOL, "WHO WRITES HIMSELF" UNITED STATES SENATOR FROM THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA:

FRIEND JOHN:—Permit an old Whig to speak to thee a little, in order to "stir up thy pure mind by way of remembrance."—I fear, friend, thee has a short memory and even a thick hide, and, therefore, I wish to refresh the former, knowing very well that I can make no impression on the latter.

Friend, if my memory is not as short as thy own, I think thee was one of the Electors for North Carolina in 1861, and if my eyes did not greatly deceive me, I saw thee cast thy vote in the Capitol at Raleigh for Jefferson Davis, as President of the Confederate States, and from conversations had with thee then, I took thee to be a good Confederate. I suppose, however, from thy declarations made since the close of the war, that in saying and acting thus, thee was only trying to "weaken the rebellion." Mr. Scoredouble, in the Play, said he healed his obstinate mule on the same principle,—when he wanted him to "go home," he always turned his head in the opposite direction, upon mounting him, and, by the aid of a good cudgel, he went "home" in a double quick. I give thee credit for sagacity, at least, friend; for it really does seem, from my recollection of thy political course, that the surest way for thee to make any party "go up," is for thee to "come down" on it. But judging from thy conduct, friend, I fear thy course, during the war, was intended, not so much to "weaken the rebellion," as to strengthen thyself. Hushai, at the suggestion of David, remained with Absalom, in order to overcome the counsel of Ahithophel and weaken the rebellion; and his conduct afterwards showed that he had acted from sincere attachment to the cause of his lawful sovereign, and patriotic devotion to his country. I think, friend John, thee has shown that if "Absalom" had succeeded, thee would have set up high claims for services rendered to his cause, and even aspired to be one of his counsellors, or perhaps a Senator. If thee had been made a General by the rebels, as I hear thee wished to be, I suppose thee would have led thy men, as Falstaff did his, where they would have been "peppered well," while thyself acting on the old knight's maxim, that "the better part of valor is discretion," thee would have lain down and feigned thyself dead, and thus lived to "weaken the rebellion" again by having thy men "peppered well" another day. Be that as it may, friend John, one thing is very certain,—thee has weakened thyself sadly in the opinion of all good men of the old Whig party; because they have heard the word of Holy Writ, which says, "A double-minded man is unstable in all his ways," and we old Union men don't know how long thee is going to stick on the Union side; nor do we know, indeed, but all the efforts thee appears to be making for the "reconstruction" of the Union, may be intended really to weaken it;—it looks very much like it, at all events, to plain, old fashioned people.—Old Ben Jonson speaks of a certain class of people,

"That, with most quick agility, could turn,
And re-return; could make and undo them;
Give forked counsel; take provoking gold
On either hand, and put it up."

Such creatures lived in his day, and we think "some of the same sort are left" in our time.

Friend John, thee has indeed "sown beside all waters." Thee was a Whig and tried to be Governor, but the people said nay; thee was a Know Nothing and tried to be Senator, and the people said nay; thee joined the rebellion and tried to be Senator, and the people said nay; thee tried to be a rebel General, and the government said nay;—the "communication" of the people to thee was "only nay, nay continually," until at last thy patience became exhausted waiting for something to "turn up," so thee concluded to "turn over," and took up thy carpet-bag and went after "strange Gods" into Africa, lusting after the "garlic and onions" of Egypt; but, friend, thy stay in that region will be short and by no means comfortable;—and what with frogs and locusts (scalawags) singing and croaking continually, "making night hideous;" grasshoppers (carpet-baggers) "which devour every green thing," and lice, "which cover all the inhabitants of the land," I think thee will be made to cry out, and if thee shall have grace given thee to escape, thee will come out of Egypt a sadder if not a wiser man; but if, like Ephraim, thee will be joined to thy idols and chain thyself to Africa for life, why then, friend John, God help —— Africa!

Me miserable! which way shall I fly?—

I will write thee again soon; in the meantime farewell, John.

From thy old Union Whig friend,
THOMAS THE QUAKER.

N. B.—Friend John, if thee is really in earnest in thy present acts and sayings, please let me know privately; because in 1861 thee got us into trouble on account of not having notified thy friends in some private manner that thee was looking one way and rowing another. Some of thy friends lost sons, and arms and legs by it, which was too bad, but better luck next time, we hope. Keep thy eye skinned, John, and advise us of thy movements.

YOUNG MEN'S CLUB.—A large number of new names were enrolled last night.—The Club now numbers 178 members.

THIS EVENING.

At 6½ o'clock, the Young Men's Seymour and Blair Club, with others desiring to participate, will meet in front of the Court House, whence they will proceed to the Depot, to welcome, in an appropriate manner, the various delegations to the Convention arriving by the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad. Interesting proceedings will be had, and the occasion will doubtless be an enthusiastic one.

ATTENTION! LADIES.—All the ladies of the City, who are disposed to assist in the decoration of Tucker Hall, for the reception of the great Democratic and Conservative State Convention, are requested to meet at the Hall, this morning, between the hours of 9 and 10 o'clock.

THE PEOPLE MOVING!

THE CRY IS STILL THEY COME!!

[We are still compelled to condense the proceedings of public meetings, which pour in upon us in an increasing stream. Our friends will appreciate the necessity which forces us to this course.]

ROCKINGHAM.

Large meeting at Madison,—and the third great meeting in the county within a week,—on the 1st. Dr. T. W. Dandridge presided and H. J. McGehee was Secretary. Col. Jno. H. Dillard and Gen. A. M. Scales delivered able speeches, which were received with enthusiastic favor. A Seymour and Blair Club was formed, with the following permanent officers: President, Dr. T. W. Dandridge; Vice Presidents, Thos. Price, Peter Scales and J. H. Cardwell; Recording Secretary, H. J. McGehee; Corresponding Secretaries, W. P. Reynolds and J. M. Andrews; Treasurer, M. Spragins; Directors, J. L. Cardwell, N. B. Scales, W. W. Oliver, B. R. Webster and J. A. Vernon. Seventy-six names were at once enrolled as members of the Club. The Sentinel Constitution and By-Laws were adopted for its government.

DAVIDSON.

Large and respectable meeting at Thomasville on the 7th., when a Club was formed, with the following officers, viz: President, Dr. R. W. Thomas; Vice Presidents, D. W. C. Johnson and D. S. Westmoreland; Recording Secretary, A. L. Grimes; Corresponding Secretary, Jno. D. Paylor; Treasurer, J. M. Shelley. Forty names were enrolled, and a Committee was appointed to devise and report some plan for the organization of the Conservative portion of the colored voters into a similar Club. Short, effective speeches were made by D. W. C. Johnson, Esq., Col. W. C. Blount and D. S. Westmoreland, Esq.

Our correspondent writes: "Seymour and Blair is the watchword,—the Platform of the New York Convention is our foundation stone, and our motto is 'Civil Liberty against Military Despotism.' We want Peace too,—not a peace, however, begotten by the sword and sustained by 'General Orders' from 'Headquarters,' but that which is founded in the hearts of the people, and has for its cap stone civil liberty and constitutional law!"

WARREN.

Enthusiastic meeting in Warrenton on the 8th. Francis A. Thornton, Esq. presided and Mr. C. W. Spruill was Secretary. The meeting was ably and eloquently addressed by Walter A. Montgomery, Esq., Col. W. A. Jenkins and W. K. Barham, Esq. Appropriate resolutions were adopted, delegates appointed to the District Electoral Convention, and the following to the approaching State Convention, viz:

William Eaton, Jr., Col. Wm. A. Jenkins, Edward H. Plummer, Walter A. Montgomery, W. K. Barham, Plummer W. Green, Capt. J. M. Palmer, John E. Boyd, Nathan Mann, Samuel Bobbitt, John M. Brame, Dr. R. S. F. Peete, Richard A. Davis, G. W. Nicholson, Col. W. S. Davis, James H. Mayfield, James S. Walker, Weldon N. Edwards, Wm. W. White, Benjamin M. Collins, Len Henderson, Dr. W. J. Hawkins, Dr. Sol. G. Ward, Charles J. Jones, Dr. C. T. Simms, Alex. L. Steed, Dr. Frank Patterson, Alfred Alston, Jr., Dr. Samuel W. Eaton, Henry Williams, Isham H. Bennett, Dr. T. J. Pitchford, Gen. S. A. Williams, Dr. M. P. Perry, Thomas M. Fleming, John W. Riggan, Saml. W. Dowtin, Robert C. Montgomery, Nathaniel Nicholson, Buckner Eaton, Benj. P. Davis, Thomas B. Fleming, John M. Waddill, Dr. Geo. A. Foote, Dr. T. P. Jerman, Kemp Plummer, Cap. Jno. R. Turnbull, J. Buxton Williams, Horace Palmer, Jr. and John R. Garland.

NASH.

Spirited and large meeting at Nashville, on the 3rd. Rev. J. Johnson presided, and D. W. Williams, Esq., was Secretary. Three delegates from each district in the County were appointed to the State Convention. The people were effectively addressed by Jno. Enroughty, Esq. The usual ratification resolutions were adopted.

WAKE.

We have received the official proceedings of the meeting at Wake County Chalybeate Springs (Fuqua's) on the 7th., but a previous notice supersedes the necessity of their publication. Wm. Ballentine, Esq., presided, and W. H. Holland was Secretary. The people, as heretofore stated, were addressed by R. C. Badger, Esq., in a speech of great ability and impressiveness, briefly and sensibly by G. H. Afford, Esq., and in cogent and effective style by C. W. Coffield, Esq., of Harnett.

RICHMOND.

Meeting at Rockingham, the county-seat, on the 4th. Dr. P. W. Stansell presided and A. T. Cole, Esq., was Secretary. A Central Seymour and Blair Club was formed, and 50 delegates were appointed to the State Convention. The meeting was entertained by stirring speeches from Cols. Frank Terry and W. L. Steele, Rev. F. Sandford, J. W. Cole and M. J. McSween, Esqrs.

CHATHAM.

A meeting of the citizens of Baldwin's District, at Riggsbee's Store, on the 8th, Wm. Snipes presided and Stanly M. Riggsbee was Secretary. The Chairman delivered an instructive and able address. A Club was organized, with the following officers: President, Dr. E. H. Ward; Vice-Presidents, H. C. Horton, A. S. Garner and S. G. Lambeth; Recording Secretary, S. M. Riggsbee; Corresponding Secretary, A. J. Bynum; Directors, T. B. Farrar, Wesley Paine, Dr. Ed. Mann, J. H. Ward and Geo. J. Cole. Delegates were appointed to the State Convention. Eighty-one citizens enrolled themselves as members of the Club—all who were present, except two of the U. A.

MECKLENBURG.

[illegible] meeting at Charlotte on the 8th. [illegible] hundred delegates were appointed to the Convention, and the same gentlemen requested to act as District delegates.

ORANGE.

Meeting at Chapel Hill on the 10th. R. D. Patterson, Esq., presided, and Anderson Couch and Capt. R. B. Saunders were Secretaries. Seventy-five delegates were appointed to the State Convention, and, in default of their attendance, Plato Durham, Esq., and Maj. A. M. Erwin were requested to act as Proxies. Ten delegates were appointed to the District Electoral Convention, with J. H. Merriman, Esq., and Col. W. H. Hardy as proxies. Arrangements were made for a grand Barbecue in Morganton, to come off shortly. The meeting was eloquently addressed by Col. H. C. Jones, of Charlotte, amid great applause.

A Seymour and Blair Club was subsequently organized, with the following officers: President, Col. J. J. Erwin; Vice-Presidents, W. M. Winters, J. H. Pearson, and others; Recording Secretary, C. Frank Terry; Corresponding Secretary, Maj. A. C. Avery; Treasurer, E. W. Dorsey; Directors, Hon. B. S. Gaither and others. The Club was addressed in stirring and eloquent speeches by Messrs. E. J. Erwin, C. J. McKesson, Platt D. Walker, of Wilmington, Jno. Gray Bynum, Col. H. C. Jones, and others. A large number of ladies were present and the enthusiasm knew no bounds. Hurrah for Burke!

COL AND GRANTPAX! HOORAY!—It had been announced, for some time, with quite a flourish of trumpets, that there was to be a "County Republican Ratification Meeting," at the Court-House, on yesterday. Accordingly, the bill was rung vigorously and re-rung, but only five "white men" and about twenty-five negroes, of all the "trooly loil" of the County, answered to the summons. The would-be meeting adjourned in disgust,—proposing to meet again at night, when, it is to be hoped, for pity's sake, the faithful were successful in drumming up a few recruits. Hooray for hooray!

MASS MEETING.—We are requested to announce that there will be a Mass Meeting of the friends of Seymour and Blair, at Franklinton, on Saturday, the 22nd. inst. The Hons. R. B. Gilliam and James W. Osborne, and W. M. Robbins and Jas. S. Amis, Esquires, are expected to address the people. This announcement, and the awakened enthusiasm of the people, will doubtless cause large numbers to be present.

FAYETTEVILLE.—The man "who writes himself Governor" has made the following municipal appointments for Fayetteville:—Mayor—W. H. Porter; Commissioners—W. H. Tomlinson, Ro. Mitchell, S. N. Welsh, A. Overbaugh, Jim Bowman, (negro,) Jack Chestnut, (negro,) Thomas Lomax, (negro,) Poor Fayetteville!

THE NEW YORK Herald of the 8th. virtually admits that the game is up with Grant and Colfax. In an article headed "The terrible counter-revolution approaching," it intimates that "the nominees of the Chicago Convention may be overwhelmed by the weight of Radical mal-administration, since the 'rebellion' was wound up, which they have to carry on their shoulders."

SHOCKING MURDER.—W. M. Rea, of Mecklenburg County, killed his wife on the 7th. inst., in Providence neighborhood, by knocking her in the head with a gun. He has been arrested and is now in Charlotte jail.

COL. R. H. COWAN has accepted an invitation to address the citizens of Guilford, at Greensboro', on the 19th. inst.

WE REGRET to announce the death of Jno. A. Roseboro, Esq., of Iredell. Mr. R. was a useful and estimable citizen, and had filled many stations of public trust.

Grant Man—I tell you, sir, Republicanism is looking up.

Seymour Man—Well, Radicalism is so flat on its back that it can't look any other way.

The Washington papers say that "none but his immediate family" are admitted to Thad Stevens' bedside. A strict black drop treatment of his chronic ailment.

Probabilities daily strengthen the belief that Hon. John S. Phelps will be nominated for Governor of Missouri. He will be elected.

ARE YOU for war, for military rule, for an Imperial central government and for a Dictator or Emperor? Vote for Grant and Colfax.

FROM ALABAMA—THE LEGISLATURE—GOV. SMITH'S VETO OF THE ELECTORAL BILL.

MONTGOMERY, Aug. 11, P. M.

A flutter was caused in the Legislature to-day. Gov. Smith sent to the Senate, where it originated, a veto of the bill authorizing the Legislature to cast the electoral vote of the State. Governor Smith says:

"After the most mature reflection, I am forced to the conclusion that the bill is wrong in principle, and that it would be a dangerous precedent in a Republican Government.

It cannot but be regarded as remarkable, that the first republican Legislature, convened in Alabama, shall, in the face of the principle of its organization, which every republican professes to hold dear, deny not only to the colored, but to the white man, the right, by his vote, to indicate his choice for a President and Vice President of the United States, and take the matter in its own hands! What excuse can there be for it? Is it a mere party expediency? If so, then it is an abandonment of principles, or an acknowledgement that the material, out of which the republican party is composed, cannot be trusted—in other words it is to say that the colored men will not do to be trusted.

If the party is as strong as it has been supposed to be, then the necessity or party expediency does not exist, but, if it did exist, would we be justifiable in resorting to it? As much as I desire the election of Grant and Colfax, I am unwilling to become a party, in behalf of that desirable result, to a scheme which practically denies the very principles for which these standard-bearers stand pledged before the country."

The message created a warm discussion and caused much bitterness.

FROM RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, Aug. 11, P. M.

The negro who was shot last night at a Conservative meeting, is mortally wounded. He made an ante-mortem statement to the effect that he was not engaged in the shooting (of the meeting by negroes.) He was taken to the Freedmen's hospital.

Two or three arrests were made to-day of persons alleged to have been in the affray.

The matter will be before the Mayor to-morrow.

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, HARTFORD.—The Ætna is a Company that can be thoroughly trusted. It is sound, prompt, and progressive. It rests on a firm basis, pays its claims with alacrity, and goes on its way rejoicing. It has done, within the immediate neighborhood of Hartford, within the last year, a larger business than any other Life Company; which indicates that a prophet has, for once, found honor in his own country.—New York Insurance Monitor.

(Extract from N. Y. Insurance Monitor, Oct. 1868.)

No Life Insurance Company ever achieved so complete a success as this popular institution.—Its popularity is altogether unprecedented in the annals of commercial enterprise in this country.

"A good man leaveth an inheritance."—Bible.

IN NORTH CAROLINA the Ætna Life Company has settled policies promptly to date, 17th July, 1868, $45,500.00, and another $5,000 is ready for the legal representative of our deceased fellow-citizen, well known as a prudent and thrifty man of business.

Those who insure in the Ætna may be sure of a certainty for their friends, and that too upon terms as favorable as any first-class Company can afford.

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION!

THE PLATFORM.

"The Democratic party, in national convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism, and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the Government, and the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled, for all time to come, by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or re-agitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First.—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Second.—Amnesty for all past political offences, and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third.—Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable; all moneys draws from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the Government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought, in right and in justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth.—Equal taxation of every species of property according to its real value, including Government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth.—One currency for the Government and the people, the laborer and the officeholder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bondholder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the Government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau (great cheering) and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the Government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the State militia into national forces in time of peace; and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the Government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign Powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty, and individual rights; and the maintenance of the rights of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance and the claims of foreign Powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the Government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge, under which alone was rallied that noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as is in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret star-chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of spies and official espionage to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partisan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created by the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of the Government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next, and inaugurate its President, we will meet, as a subjected and conquered people, amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated, and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right, or to interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution; and it sanctioned by the people will subvert our form of government, and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated Government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a federal union of co-equal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so-called) of Congress as usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary, and void; that our soldiers and sailors, who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe, must ever be gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people, and should be sold, or given either under the pre-emption or homestead laws, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the Government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson, (applause,) in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard."

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS FOR CLUBS.

We have received letters from several sources, requesting us to send printed copies of a Constitution and By-Laws for the organization of Seymour and Blair Clubs.—Having none on hand, and no funds to print them, we have prepared the following Constitution and By-Laws, as a guide for Clubs, and submit them to the consideration of our friends. They were submitted to the Young Men's meeting to form a Seymour and Blair Club, in this city, on Tuesday night, and unanimously adopted:

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE 1st. This Association shall be styled the —— Club of —— of North Carolina.

ART. 2. The objects of this Association are as follows: To unite in close political compact every Democrat, Conservative, or by whatever name known, in North Carolina, for the support and defense of the Constitution of the United States; the promotion of the peace and good will of society and the Union; the proper enforcement of law and order by legitimate forms, and the utter destruction of Radicalism every where, by the election of HORATIO SEYMOUR, of New York, as President, and FRANCIS P. BLAIR, of Missouri, as Vice President, and all other Democratic and Conservative nominees for any office; and, further, to promote the mutual benefit and protection of each other in all lawful pursuits, aiding each other in business, as being members of one great political family, seeking to promote each other's welfare, and especially to extend such aid to those who have been or may be ignored or proscribed by the Radical party, as the Association may be able.

ART. 3. The officers of this Club shall consist of a President, three Vice Presidents, a Recording Secretary, a Corresponding Secretary and a Treasurer, who shall perform the duties usual to such offices, and who, together with Five Directors, shall be elected annually at the annual meeting of the Association, and shall constitute an Executive Board, to whom shall be committed the interests of the Club.

ART. 4. This Constitution, and such By-Laws or Regulations as the Club may adopt, may be altered, amended or changed at any public meeting of the Club by a vote of two-thirds of the members present.

SUBSCRIPTION.

We, whose names are hereto annexed, do solemnly pledge our word and sacred honor, constantly and faithfully to promote the objects and aims of this Club as set forth in the foregoing Constitution, and do hold ourselves ready to defend the same, and to protect, to the extent of our ability, every member of this Association throughout the State.

BY-LAWS AND REGULATIONS.

1. Every member of this Club shall sign and subscribe the Constitution, in order to recognition.

2. All monied contributions to the objects of the Association shall be voluntary, and shall be held by the Treasurer, who shall keep an exact account and disburse the same only on the order of the Executive Board, to whom he shall submit his accounts when ordered.

3. The Club shall order its public meetings when and where it chooses, and the President may call meetings when desirable, but the Executive Board, or such of its members as may be designated, shall select speakers and make all necessary arrangements.

4. Each member of the Executive Board is hereby appointed a Committee to solicit names for membership, also monied donations for the objects of the Club, and to attend to the general interests of the Club, such as directing the correspondence, procuring and circulating documents, &c.

5. The Executive Board shall meet to transact the private business of the Club as often as it may order (and the officers of the Club shall be ex-officio officers of the Board) when the names of members shall be presented for registration or dismissal for good cause, to consider the financial business of the Club and such other private matters as may be necessary. All members of the Club may attend the private meetings of the Board when convenient, and may give counsel, but the business of the Board will be determined by the vote of the Board itself.

6. Any member of the Club intending to move to any other section, may obtain a certificate of his membership in this Club, if he desire it, to be signed by the President and Secretary.

7. The Executive Board of each Club will give special attention to all matters of registration, voting, &c., to see that all do their duty, and that the law is strictly observed, that all fraud or mal-practice is detected and duly punished.

REMARKS.

1. In South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi and other Southern States, strong Democratic Clubs are being formed, composed of colored citizens. The Constitution above is so worded that it can be adapted to any place or persons. If Democratic Clubs can be formed entirely of colored persons, perhaps it will be best; but where there are few, the Clubs may decide to enter them on their registers or not, as they may elect.

2. We would suggest that Young Men's Clubs, everywhere, should embrace all young men, from 18 years of age, and upwards. Many old men are faint-hearted, timid, afraid to let people know their political status. Take in the young men, who have the pluck, and who may be educated to love the Constitution and the country, and who will always vote right, when they become of age. We need the ardor and boldness of youth, as well as the prudence and wisdom of age. The necessity for this, however, would be obviated, if the young men, under the age of 21, would form Clubs of their own.

3. We insist upon forming Clubs in every Ward, in every precinct and Captain's District in the State, where 25 or 30 members, and as many more as possible, can be obtained. The more the better. The talent and energy of all our people must be brought out. It will not do to let the old men and the old party managers do all the managing and the talking. We must put every man in some position to be useful. By having a Club in every Ward and every neighborhood, we can find room for a great many as officers and talkers and working men. We can have our Club meetings out of doors, these pleasant nights, by moonlight or camp fires, and there will be a chance for every man, who can make a talk, or a little speech, or a great speech, to do something in that line. Let the Clubs be formed. Bring out all our men to work for the Constitution and the country, and let us save them by the election of Seymour and Blair!

Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.

William E. Pell, } Editors.
Seaton Gales, }

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;

Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;

The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;

The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;

The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;

The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.—The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

Terms:

Daily Sentinel, for one year,		$8 00
" "	six months,	4 00
" "	three months	2 00

" "	six months,	2 00
" "	three months,	1 00
Weekly "	for one year,	2 00
" "	six months,	1 00

All subscriptions strictly cash in advance.

As an advertising medium, the SENTINEL is equal to any in the State. Terms moderate.

☞ We ask every Conservative in the State to become our Agent to extend the circulation of the SENTINEL. The events of 1868 will be exciting and important. The WEEKLY SENTINEL should be in the hands of the great body of the people.—The terms are now so low that every one will be able to pay for it.

GENERAL REMARKS.

Revenue stamps may be used indiscriminately upon any of the matters or things enumerated in Schedule B., except proprietary and playing card stamps, for which a special use has been provided.

Postage stamps cannot be used in payment of the duty chargeable on instruments.

It is the duty of the maker of an instrument to affix and cancel the stamp thereon. If he neglects to do so, the party for whom it is made, may stamp it before it is used; and, if used after the 30th of July, 1864, and used without a stamp, it cannot afterwards be effectually stamped. Any failure upon the part of the maker of an instrument, to appropriately stamp it, renders him liable to a penalty of two hundred dollars.

Suits are commenced in many States by other process than writ, viz: summons, warrants, publication, &c., in which case these, as the original process, severally require stamps.

Writs of scire facias are subject to stamp duty as original process.

The jurat of an affidavit, taken before a Justice of the Peace, Notary Public, or other officer duly authorized to take affidavits, is held to be a certificate, and is subject to a stamp duty of five cents, except when taken in suits of legal proceedings.

Certificates of loan in which there shall appear any printed or written evidence of an amount of money to be paid on demand or at any time designated, are subject to stamp duty as Promissory Notes.

The assignment of a mortgage is subject to the same duty as that imposed upon the original instrument; that is to say, for every sum of five hundred dollars, or any fractional part thereof, of the amount secured by the mortgage, at time of its assignment, there must be affixed a stamp of stamps, denoting a duty of five cents.

When two or more persons join in the execution of an instrument, the stamps to which this instrument is liable, under the law, may be affixed and cancelled by one of the parties.

In conveyance of real estate, the law provides that no stamp affixed must convey to the value of the estate or interest conveyed.

No stamp is required on warrant of attorney accompanying a bond or note, when such bond or note has affixed thereto the stamp or stamps denoting the duty required, and whenever any bond or note is secured by mortgage, but one stamp duty is required on such papers, such stamp duty being the highest rates required for such instruments, or either of them. In such case a note or memorandum of the value or denomination of the stamp affixed should be made upon the margin or in the acknowledgment of the instrument which is not stamped.
